Margaret Korda
5th Merit Scholar
For Local Schools

Dr. Frederick B. Kutz, Newark High School principal, has announced another National Merit Scholarship semi-finalist for a total five in the district—Margaret Korda, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Korda, 307 Beverly Road.

Margaret is a transfer student from the Tennessie School in Johnsburg, Pa., where she played the violin in the school orchestra, was a member of the Debate Club, and played on the varsity hockey team.

This past summer she attended the Girl Scouts of America round-up in Idaho.

The delay of Margaret's announcement with other National Merit Scholarship semi-finalists in the Newark school district, was occasioned with transfer of school records from Pennsylvania to Delaware.

With 180 horses performing in quiet, perfect teamwork, the Coronet provided easy driving pleasure.
"No, it was made in Detroit," Mr. Pretzman replied, but he showed his companion shiny new Datsun, Polara, and Monaco Dodge models made in Newark, with the Monaco developing 350 hp.
"I'd like to sell you one," Optimist Pretzman said.

West Park Principal

Robert C. Hawkins

School Principals
Weigh Problems
In Joint Meeting

Principal of West Park Elementary School, and former associate professor of education at Indiana State College, Robert C. Hawkins addressed elementary school principals of the Newark district at their recent meeting in the Joseph M. McVey Elementary School, with his topic, "Thoughts of an Ex-College Professor."

Hawkins confined his remarks to trends in elementary curriculum, commenting on four general areas—mathematics, science, language arts, and social studies.

Thomas A. Cobley, principal of the Robert S. Gallaher School, who this summer took part in the educators study at the Amidon School in Washington, reported that "The Amidon Plan appears to have done a great deal of good for the children and teachers of the Amidon School and is being extended to all other elementary schools in Washington. It requires teachers to both plan and teach in a highly organized manner."

"The major concern of the plan is to have every child read and speak fluently," Cobley concluded.

Dr. George V. Kirk, assistant superintendent for instructional services in the Newark district, commented on the principal's program with "Principals in Newark have the opportunity of hearing reports each month from their own members, university professors, of other educators. They then can discuss these items with the educator involved."

He also noted that this is part of a continuing program of in-service work for district principals in an effort to provide information and opportunity for discussion so that they may continue to work for the benefit of the teachers under their supervision, and for greater educational benefits for children in their schools.

Crossan Conducts Air Pollution Research
To Reduce Annual $18-Million Crop Loss

The same kind of weather that causes hay fever victims to sneeze is probably responsible for air pollution damage to plants, says Dr. Donald Crossan, associate professor of plant pathology at the University of Delaware.

He is directing a research program to connect severe leaf spotting frequently found in some plants, with a specific kind of weather. When a thin layer of warm air stays close to the ground, the air becomes increasingly dirty or polluted.

Wind blowing from a source of air pollution traps pollutants and blows them toward areas where plants are found damaged. Crossan explains that relatively short exposure to pollutants—only a few hours—can severely injure plants.

Crop losses along the eastern seaboard caused by air pollution, are estimated at more than $18,000,000 each year. Increasing industrialization and urbanization throughout Delaware, particularly in New Castle County, will cause even more air pollution, Crossan says.

The problem will become more severe when more industry is added to the present complex of chemical companies and oil refineries. The increasing number of cars and trucks on Delaware highways also contributes to pollution problems. Gases produced by these sources can cause considerable damage to agricultural

Mayor Cites "Second Council"
With Contingent In Louviers

Shields, Folsom Clash On Review Of Sept. 13 Meeting; Consistent Exemption For Church Properties Approved; President Defends LWV Position With Planning Post

"I am wondering whether or not we are having a second council at the Louviers Building," Mayor Joseph A. Shields said last Monday night in reply to Councilman Henry R. Folsom, Jr., who challenged the mayor's "insinuations" concerning the appointment of municipal planning commissioners during his absence at the Sept. 13 meeting. William C. Long, an engineer at the DuPont Louviers Building, was appointed

Speaker For Lions
Discusses Problem
Of Drug Addiction

At their regular weekly meeting last Tuesday in Howard Johnson's on Route 896, the Newark Lions Club heard Harry S. Hughes, Jr., of Smith, Kline, and French Laboratories, speak on the problem of drug abuse.

Program chairman for the Newark Lions, Robert Halman, introduced Hughes, a 1952 graduate of the University of Delaware, who explained the difference between drug addiction and abuse, and the involvement of habit and non-habit-forming drugs. The SKF representative spent the major portion of his talk on the particular problem with amphetamines, stimulant drugs, and the barbiturates.

Hughes explained that the "gang" was one of the strongest forces in getting youngsters to try drugs for "kicks." More youngsters begin this drug habit on the urging of other youths, than by the so-called "pushers," Hughes said. He stressed that the problem of drug abuse is neither limited to the city, nor to any income group.

Compromised?
Concerning Mrs. E. R. Ronkin's
Appointment As Member Of Newark Planning Commission, Mayor Shields Said "I Think They Have Compromised Their Position By Permitting This Person To Take This Position." Mrs. Ronkin Is President Of The League Of Women Voters Of Newark.

"I think this is the business of the league," Doehrlert declared.

And Mrs. Ronkin in the audience said "I don't like to be a bone of contention at the council table, but the position of the league is that it believes a comprehensive plan is necessary to the orderly growth of Newark. I cannot see any conflict."

"Expressing concern over zoning recommendations, Shields added "I feel that no one on this particular commission should be tied up with any other group . . . to avoid any accusations of being 'in cahoots.'"

Doehrlert proposed "a vote on a list of organizations you think should be outlawed."

And concerning the appointment of planning commissioners, Shields suggested that "the engineering requirement be confined to the district appointments—not for the member-at-large."

Equitable Treatment
"I would like to see all churches treated alike," Shields said, citing "gross inconsistency" with exemptions of assessment charges for sidewalks and utilities adjacent to church properties. And council agreed to waive assessments of some $8,000 for utilities, street, and sidewalk for the Unitarian church on Willa Road; $451.20 and $152.71 in sewer line assessments for Jehovah's Witnesses on West Park Place, and for St. John's ATMP Church property on Elkton Road, and $152.45 in sidewalk assessment for the Catholic diocesan property on Elkton Road.

Shields explained that such exemptions influenced his opposition to the request by the Evangelical Presbyterian Church on East Main Street for additional property in the area. "Give them the property, and the city then has to pay for the street," the mayor explained.

Folsom presented a public information sheet compiled at his request by Mrs. Betty Stultz of the municipal office staff, with 200 copies to be prepared for public distribution upon request. The sheet includes information on local municipal meetings, elections, ordinances, voter registration, and official contacts.

"Excellent!" Councilman David H. Doehrlert termed the sheet.

A committee to advise council concerning shade tree promotion, was appointed by the mayor at Doehrlert's suggestion, with John H. Fassnacht, chairman. The committee includes Mrs. Ruth Bausman, Robert R. Balmer, Mrs. Charles J. Schmidt, Charles W. Dunham, Vernon G. Verrier, Dale F. Bray, and Mrs. Thomas A. Foster.

Council approved a request from Bradford Builders, Inc., for removal of the barricade between Dallas and Chrysler avenues for public inspection of two model homes this Saturday, pending completion of Willa Road. Acting-City Manager Albert K. Martin reported that Willa Road soon will be provided with an all-weather surface.

Failure To Use Seat Belts Increases Maryland Toll

In highway accidents investigated by Maryland Police last week, nine persons were killed and 49 were injured.

In 42 instances where seat belts were not available, use of the life-saving device would have prevented three deaths, and would have reduced seriousness of injury in 32 cases.

"Each week, in State Police investigated accidents alone, the evidence supporting the safety value of seat belts continues to mount," commented Colonel Carey Jarman, Superintendent of the Maryland State Police, "and every motorist would certainly do well, for insurance reasons, to take full advantage of this device which can so easily be installed and used."

Thirteen persons were killed on Maryland highways last week. Five of those killed were drivers; six were passengers; and two were pedestrians.

Alcohol was a contributing factor in one death; speed in six; and driver error was present in all fatalities.

Catholic Adults Offered Classes At Elkton Church

Catholic adults who want to know the Bible better—understand reasons behind changes in liturgy and updating of the church by the Vatican Council—and parents who want to be able to discuss the "new morality" with their teen-age sons and daughters, as well as those who want to learn to teach religion, will return to school this week with Immaculate Conception parish in Elkton designated as one of 12 centers for adult religious education to serve Catholics living in Newark, Perryville, Middletown, Galena, Chestertown and Elkton.

Last Tuesday the Rev. William Irwin, assistant priest at Immaculate Conception, began a 10-week, 20-hour course in the history and theology of salvation.

The Rev. Philip Stry, assistant at Good Shepherd Church, Perryville, will conduct another course in the sacramental life of the church. Both classes will meet every Tuesday for 10 weeks from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m., and examinations are not required.

Car pools are being arranged in Newark, and interested adults are advised to contact their pastor.

The easiest thing of all is to devote one's self, for what a man wishes he generally believes to be true. —Demosthenes

Social Security Changes

By Myron Milbourn, Manager
Wilmington Social Security Office

In my first column on the many changes made in the Social Security law, I told you about them in a general way. In this and later columns I will discuss each of the changes in more detail.

Today I will tell about the increase in the benefit rate and how it will affect 30,000 persons who get monthly benefits in New Castle County.

First, the monthly rate was increased seven per cent for most people effective last January. This means that starting with checks due in October, local residents will get $149,000 more each month. In September, people will get an extra check. This check will be for the difference between the new and old benefit rates for January through August.

There is no need for anyone to come into the district office in order to get his benefits increased. This will be done automatically.

The minimum rate for workers who start getting benefits when they are 65 or older was increased from $40 to $44 a month. The maximum monthly payment for those now getting benefits was increased from $127 to $135.50.

Since the minimum increase was $4 a month, those people whose benefit was between $40 and $56 a month actually are getting more than a seven per cent increase. Those now getting benefits of $57 or more a month will receive a seven per cent increase.

A worker who now gets $60 a month will get $64.20; one who now receives $75 will get $80.30; a person receiving $100 will have a new rate of $107; and a person now getting $120 will get $128.40 each month.

ANYONE in YOUR family . . . or YOU . . . have a drinking problem? Maybe AA can help. Newark Group meets 8 p.m., Wednesdays and Saturdays, Westminster House, 292 W. Main St., Newark. Visitors welcome on Saturdays.

Delaware Bus Co. To Offer Service To Atlantic City

Delaware Bus Co., interstate affiliate of Delaware Coach Co., will begin direct bus service from Wilmington to Atlantic City on Oct. 1. The route has been operated by Monumental Motor Tours of Baltimore.

Delaware Bus will double the number of daily trips over the present service, according to Charles W. Croft, general manager of Delaware Bus and Delaware Coach.

Use of modern air-conditioned diesel buses from the 85-vehicle fleet of the two companies also will allow an improvement in running time, Croft concluded.

The Interstate Commerce Commission and the New Jersey Public Utilities Commission have both approved transfer of operating rights for the route, to Delaware Bus from Monumental.

Effective with the change, Delaware Bus will operate four trips a day between Wilmington and Bridgeport, N.J., including morning and evening commuter service. Two trips daily each way will link Wilmington and Atlantic City.

New running time to Atlantic City will be approximately two hours and 25 minutes, with buses leaving the Wilmington Bus Center at 2nd and French Streets at 9 a.m. and 3:30 p.m.

Returning, buses will leave Atlantic City at noon and 6:15 p.m.

VA Hospital Jobs Open At Unit in Wilmington

Leon Fields, manager of the Wilmington Veterans Administration regional office, urged residents of the State of Delaware, to "Hire the Handicapped."

His appeal, part of a nation-wide campaign to all employers, urged specifically that business men and women consider hiring handicapped veterans to fill jobs in plants, factories, and offices.

Fields cited National Employment Physically Handicapped Week which will be observed this year from Oct. 3 to 9, the 20th anniversary of the event.

During the past 20 years, more than four million handicapped men and women have found jobs in private industry in this country through the campaign.

Family groups now get maximum benefits between $60 and $254 a month depending on the worker's rate. Under the new law, families will receive maximum benefits between $66 and $309.20.

The wage base on which Social Security taxes are paid and on which benefits are figured will increase to $6,600 in 1966.
Changes in the law will permit workers who retire in the future with average earnings of $550 a month to get $168 a month, but this amount will not be payable for some years.

As the worker's rate increases because of the new $6,600 wage base, so the maximum amount payable to a family will increase to as much as $368 a month.

Another change made provides for the automatic refiguring of a worker's benefit if he works after he has become eligible for benefits and has additional covered earnings which may increase his benefit.

It will no longer be necessary for a worker to file an application to have his benefit refigured. Each year, after earnings are posted to a person's record, it will be checked. If, with additional earnings the benefits can be increased, this will be done automatically, effective with January of the year after the amounts were earned.

However, because of the necessary time lag in posting items to a person's earnings record, the actual refiguring of the benefit will not take place until several months after the end of the year. Any increased benefit amount, though, will be payable retroactively to January.

Another feature of the 1965 amendments to the Social Security law will be discussed in my next column.

Thomas T. Oyler Elected Vice President for Acme
Directors of Acme Markets, Inc., at their regular monthly meeting in September, elected Thomas T. Oyler vice-president of the corporation, with full responsibility for corporate financial matters. David M. Park will continue in the post of treasurer.

Associated with Kroger Co., for 18 years in various capacities—most recently as vice-president and director, from which posts he resigned in 1964—Oyler brings to Acme a background of experience in chain store corporate management.

Robt. Bull to Speak On Feeding World At Youth Meeting

Some 30 Delaware young people are expected to attend the annual four-state Young Men and Women's Conference, Oct. 8 to 10, at Jackson's Mill, W.Va.

Sponsored by the Cooperative Extension Service of Delaware, Ohio, Maryland and West Virginia, the conference is designed for people 18 to 30, with "Values in Focus" theme for this year's event.

Robert Bull, director of the Food Business Institute at the University of Delaware, will speak on "Feeding the World."

James O. Baker, state 4-H leader, will accompany the Delaware group to the conference.

The conference is open to any interested person between 18 and 30. For further information contact the county 4-H agent in Newark.

Group Hospital Service Medicare Intermediary

All nine general hospitals in Delaware have proposed that Group Hospital Service be their "administrative intermediary" for implementation of the Medicare program.

The intermediary is a sort of middleman between the hospitals which will perform services for senior citizens under the Medicare program, and the federal government, which will pay for certain services.

The intermediary agency will make payments to hospitals, administer claims, maintain records of the use of the new program, and perform other services.

Ex-Servicemen With Skills Sought For Air Force Duty

Ex-servicemen with needed skills have a chance to apply for enlistment in the U. S. Air Force, according to T/Sgt. George Del Santo of the Wilmington recruiting office.

The Air Force is calling men with previous experience in any branch of the Armed Forces if they possess skills needed by the aerospace team.

Among skilled persons needed by the Air Force are those with air, police, administrative, personnel, mechanical, traffic control, and electronic backgrounds.

FIRE PREVENTION — OUR JOB

With Fire Prevention Week, Oct. 3-9, State Fire Marshal William R. Favinger is urging every citizen in Delaware to take stock and reflect on the fire safety problems which may be in or around the individual home.

The fire death count and fire loss for 1964 are much too high for a state the size of Delaware.

With dwellings leading the list, there is a serious need for each homeowner to consider just how safe from fire the home is. Fires can be prevented—but only if everyone conscientiously follows a few sensible means of prevention.

How safe are heating systems? Are electrical circuits used wisely? These are the two leading causes of life and property loss in Delaware for 1964.

Favinger further urges that everyone plan an escape route from the home and practice its use.

At 7:30 p.m. next Wednesday, it is asked that evacuation drills be held in every home to launch a fire prevention year. Strict adherence to safe procedures can reduce the possibility of damage to your property, and possible death to a loved one.

EMPLOY THE PHYSICALLY HANDICAPPED

Twenty years ago President Truman signed Public Law 176 which established the first full week in every October as a week dedicated to job equality for the handicapped.

During the two decades which have passed—all across the nation in all manner of jobs—handicapped workers have piled up a record of great accomplishment which more than justifies the confidence that enlightened management has placed in them.

In many respects the wheelchair is keeping pace with the push-button era as automation and rapidly changing nature of today's jobs offer employers new incentives to make use of special skills which the handicapped are learning in modern vocational rehabilitation.

The demands for today's jobs are more for qualities of the spirit than strength of body. Actually, the number of jobs that require the unimpaired, robust day-laborer are disappearing so fast that the greatest lack is a job for the able-bodied person seeking any unskilled occupation.

America will be the stronger if all Americans, including the handicapped, have the opportunity to share the full fruits of our burgeoning economy.

City Council

Action on a request by Andrew J. Brothers in the audience, that municipal employees be accorded the same rights of state employees to decide upon affiliation with the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees through the Delaware organizing committee, was deferred pending return of City Manager J. Francis Neide from vacation.

A progress report on the western drainage ditch from Public Works Director Benjamin J. Campagna, was presented, and council approved Martin's recommendation to employ Cole-Layer-Trumble Co. to maintain reassessment records of all taxable real estate within the city at an annual cost of $3,500.

Responsible Party

Upon advice from City Solicitor Clyde M. England, Jr., Neide is to appoint a member of his staff to be responsible for acquisition of land for rights-of-way, with one official appraisal to be obtained in each case from a qualified appraiser.

"You are the fourth I have talked to," England said he was informed with recent negotiations for city land acquisition.

Council approved Martin's recommendation for operation of the city street sweeper on a two-shift basis, with the addition of chemicals to the water in the sweeper for dust control.

"I wonder why we have not done this before," Councilman Albert P. Chittenden said.

Concerning Martin's report of recent municipal merit pay increases, Folsom asked for a definition of "merit increase," citing "one out of four are job changes."

Concerning city purchase of a four-door compact car, Doehltz reported criticism received of employees using city cars on personal business, and requested a copy of city policy in this matter.

"I don't think we have a written policy," Martin replied, and Doehltz responded with "I would like to know what they think the policy is," referring to the absent Neide.

"Wait until Neide returns," Wakefield advised, "Why does not the party come forward and back you up?" Wakefield asked of Doehltz's complaint.

Contract Awards

Contracts for city purchase of the compact car and for a half-ton pickup truck were awarded to Dergance Ford, Inc., for the low bids of $1,799 and $1,644.

W. F. Keegan & Co., and Automatic Signal Division were awarded contracts for city purchase of detectors and controller for traffic signal equipment on South College Avenue and Park Drive with bids of $1,584 and $1,306.16; the contract for city purchase of a 2500 KVA outdoor substation was awarded to Graybar Electric for the low bid of $30,065; and the A/C Pipe Co., Inc., was awarded the contract to provide fire hydrants and valves with the low bid of $8,179.41.

Additional bids, with but one received, are to be sought for College Park recreation area improvements. Proposed ordinances to extend parking prohibitions on Chapel and East Main Streets, and on Cleveland, Delaware, and College avenues, and changing parking hours on Delaware and Cleveland Avenues, were approved at preliminary readings.

Council authorized payment of 53 per cent of the fee—some $1,100—to the architect for plans submitted for the College Park recreation area, and

FIRE SAFETY AT REHOBOTH

Some 30 girls will vie for the title of "Miss Fire Prevention," and some 50 volunteer companies will parade at Rehoboth Beach this Sunday, to mark Fire Prevention Week.

Solicitor England is to confer with the city manager in an effort to provide water for the new National Little League diamond on Possum Park Road beyond the city limits.

England cited his written opinion on the matter as a result of inadequate time for preparation of the "masterpiece," and Mayor Shields said "Yes, but what did you say?"

A Year Late

Councilman Folsom urged council to consider the capital budget for approval due in October, and Martin pointed out that the budget under consideration was "last year's."

Martin was advised to bring the budget up to date, and to call it to Neide's attention.

"He has already called it to my attention," the acting-city manager said.

Wakefield urged consideration of Kells Avenue as a school crossing of South College Avenue, citing the present hazardous conditions at the Park Place intersection, and he is to investigate the areas for correction with Chief of Police Arthur S. Haussler.

Chittenden cited a constituent's electric meter "that still turns when everything is pulled," with a billing of $80 to $90 every quarter, and shrubbery obstructing the view at the corner of the Bent and Briar lane intersection. Both matters are to be checked.

Councilman Olan R. Thomas reported complaints of low water pressure and electric power in the western portion of the city; and corrective measures are being investigated.

City Secretary Charles D. Long reported an assessment total of $386,700 exempt from city taxes with university purchase of local property from 1961 to date.

Mayor Shields requested "some restrictions we can place on gas stations" for a more orderly appearance, from City Planning Director John J. Griesbaum, and the meeting was adjourned at 10:14 p.m.

Summer Session Enrollment Record Of 4,801 Reported

Enrollment in the University of Delaware 1965 summer session smashed all previous records, Registrar Robert Gebhardt said.

A total of 4,801—31 per cent and 1,139 students higher than last year—attended either the first or second semester on-campus classes or enrolled for courses in the Rehoboth and Winterthur programs.

"The extent of this growth is perhaps best understood when compared to total university enrollment in the fall of 1955-56, just 10 years ago," Gebhardt said.

"Our first semester enrollment for the regular academic year then was only 33 students larger than this year's summer school."

Comparisons with previous summer school enrollments disclose that in 1955, only 878 students enrolled, and by 1964, enrollment had not yet doubled that number.

The first major jump came in 1963—from 1,786 to 2,650—and more than 1,000 have been added each summer since.

Co-Capt. Dick Fulton Scores Three TD's, Dick Kelley, Two, As Newark Wins 41-7

Co-Capt. Dick Fulton at halfback ran for three touchdowns, including a spectacular sprint of 67 yards, and place-kicked four extra points to lead Coach Bob Hoffman's Newark High School Yellowjackets to a 41-7 romp over Mt. Pleasant's Green Knights last Saturday morning on the Newark field.

Halfback Dick Kelley ran for two more, and End Larry Tucker intercepted a Mt. Pleasant pass to race 30 yards for the final Newark touchdown in the fourth quarter. Halfback David Word kicked an extra point.

With Fulton and Kelley plunging for three and five-yard touchdowns, and Fulton flying downfield for a 67-yard score, the Yellowjackets rolled to a 20-0 advantage by the end of the first quarter.

The Knights rallied their defenses in the second period to hold the Yellowjackets scoreless, but Kelley broke free for 28 yards and a touchdown in the third period to give Newark a 27-0 edge, with Fulton kicking his third conversion of the morning.

Mt. Pleasant staked one claim in the Newark end zone early in the fourth quarter as Buzz Bennett passed to Keith Payne for a 15-yard score, and Hotter ran for the extra point.

The Yellowjackets took over from there with Fulton running 17 yards for his third touchdown, and Tucker scoring with his pass interception.

In the cool autumn sunset last Sunday evening, Scott's Marina was a quiet, lonely place, with only sturdy Stan Somerville standing in the dusk amid the battened-down boats and closed gas dock and store as the Young Lady and her crew of two came in off the ocean.

"Just wanted to say good-bye," Stan, the professional mate aboard Capt. Dick Pleasant's neighboring Marlin II, said. "I'm all through here for the season. Going home to Salisbury, and then to Florida for the winter."

And on his final trip of the Delaware season, Stan had brought aboard some 200 bluefish for Dick Pleasant's party.

Dressing out 21 blues freshly caught from the tide rips at the mouth of the Indian River Inlet was chore enough—and with Stan's departure, and Cap'n Gibby Young cleaning down the boat, it was a lonely chore, too, with only the plaintive, soaring, scrap-scooping gulls and a passing flight of sunset-silhouetted ducks for company.

However, there are plenty of fish if not people along the Delaware Atlantic Coast, and millions of migrating mullet are being harried by bluefish, trout, and rock working close inshore.

The bottom dropped out of the thermometer while we were asleep aboard the boat last Friday night, and a cold wind whistling out of the northwest on Saturday was attended by small craft warnings. The Young Lady remained moored to the dock—not because of the weather, but because of a faulty diesel gasket. And we consequently missed a rough trip offshore.

Late in the afternoon with a dozen fresh mullet, we tried the surf just north of the inlet—and broke the second of only two Calcutta rods in our experience.

Big Charlie Dickey broke the first one during an all-night stand in the Delaware surf, and Jolly Cholly somehow spliced his rod and continued to fish with all the form of the state surf-casting champion that he was. We weren't so ingenious last Saturday. The rod which had weath-

Operating out of Dave Nelson's Winged-T, the Yellowjackets scored on halfback-to-halfback reverses and inside counters in some ball-handling and running wizardry.

Playing for the Newark High School varsity against the hapless Knights last Saturday were Quarterbacks Lou Strengari and Bob Hubbard; Halfbacks Fulton, Kelley, Word, Jim McDonough, Fred Conkey, and Bradley Lane; and Fullbacks Don Walp, Bob Vance, and Tyrone Wood.

In the Yellowjacket line were Hubbard, Tucker, Sam Jackson, Orville Wright, and Dave Graybeal; ends Bill Murphy, Pat Walker, Conway Hayman, Bob Nichols, Gary McCormick, and Larry Smith; tackles Mike Turner, Rowan Perkins, John Ingold, Bob Jones, and Tom McDonald; guards; and Co-Capt. Bob Ewing and Ken Woodward, centers.

Newark faces Conrad at Woodcrest this Saturday at 1:30 p.m.

Harrington Offers Appreciation Night Free Admissions

All persons will be admitted free of charge to the grounds and grandstand next Thursday when the Kent and Sussex Raceway at Harrington holds its first Appreciation Night of the current 40-night harness racing meet.

Three free gifts—a $500 color television console and two motorcycles—will be presented to patrons immediately after the last race. Winners must be present to receive gifts and persons under 18 are not eligible. "This is one way we can express our appreciation to harness racing enthusiasts of this area," W. W. Shaw, director of racing, declared. The feature race of the Appreciation Night program will be the Governor Terry Pace, and the state's chief executive has been invited to present a trophy to the winning owner and driver.

Bob Simone, Dickerson Win Member-Guest Play

Bob Simone and guest Willard Dickerson of Cavaliers won the member-guest tournament last week end at the Newark Country Club with a net 122.

Ivan Trusler and Russ Jones of Concord were second with 128. Jerry Gilston and Al Melli, Cavaliers, tied with Sank Richards, and Bill Jones, Concord with 125 in Class B.

Paul McDermitt and Bill Hagerty, Arnonimink, had a 69 for Saturday's low gross, while Bill Turnbull and Willard McConnell, Kennett Square, had the Sunday low gross 69.

ered away on the top decks of two cruisers since 1960, cracked into hopeless splinters some 2-ft. from the tip, and we borrowed a spinning rod from Skipper Dave Porter of the Tiger II.

It took awhile for an old fashioned, free-spooling surfman to get the knack of handling the light spinning tackle, and with mullet scattering in silvered spangled schools clear of the surface before blasting bluefish, it was a nerve-wracking bit of orientation. The fish were well within range of a conventional Calcutta cast, but out beyond a novice spin-fisherman's reach.

But we began to get more distance, found the range, and tied into a pound-and-a-half blue that revised personal opinion concerning spinning tackle in the surf.

The blue fought hard and well, doubling the light rod and taking monofil from the coffee-grinder reel before it was drawn bouncing from the white wash and onto the dry sand.

This blue was followed by a nice trout—a not-so-nice shark—and then a terrific strike that had everything going for the fish until the heavy pressure was suddenly relieved. Reeling in, the angler was surprised to find a good trout on the top, doodle-bug-baited hook, but something big and powerful had escaped from the other.

The sun had dropped behind the drift fence on the dune beyond the beach, and we trudged back through the sand with our three fish for a fabulous, fresh fry aboard the Young Lady that evening.

With the diesel doctored and in running order the next day, we trolled over a beautifully blue, calm sea some 25 miles offshore under a warm, golden sun—and in some six hours caught seven fish. Six of these came aboard within almost so many minutes—one-pound amberjacks concentrated around a moss-covered marker buoy—and then we caught a good three-pound bonito that was apparently swimming all alone in the vast ocean.

We passed a great loggerhead turtle sunning its near half-ton mossy and barnacle-encrusted bulk on the surface of the sea, and trolled all the way in from A-Buoy without another strike.

The YWCA will sponsor a tour of eight homes and gardens on Saturday, from 12:30 to 5 p.m., with tea to be served that afternoon in the Smyth Center.

Come to the Fair and enjoy yourself while helping the local YWCA program.

The Vikings meet Wilmington High School this Friday, and face the Newark Yellowjackets at Rockford Park next Wednesday afternoon.

Christiana is tied for second in the conference race with a 1-1 record, while William Penn, DeLaWarr and Wilmington are undefeated with a pair of wins apiece.

VFW, Stanton Teams Win In Junior Football Play

The defending champion VFW team defeated the Green Raiders last Sunday in Capitol Trail Junior Football League play, with the 13-14-year-old Vets winning 27-6, and the 10-12-year-olds taking a 19-6 decision on the Kells Avenue field.

The Stanton teams defeated Central 26-6 and 36-0 at Stanton.

This Sunday, the Crusaders face Central at Kells, and the VFW plays at Stanton.

First games are scheduled to begin at 1:30 p.m.

Renee, John O'Leary Win Main Line Sport Car Test

Renee and John O'Leary of Newark, won the Main Line 100 sports car rally Sunday at Kennett Square, Pa., to put them solidly on top in Philadelphia region SCCA championship standings.

The 162-mile average speed and navigation test started at Exton, wound through southeastern Pennsylvania and northern Delaware and ended at Kennett.

The O'Leary Chrysler 300 led 61 cars with a 22 second error through nine checkpoints.

Just off the mouth of the inlet, mullet were skittering over bluefish and under gulls and terns, and we changed course from the harbor for a last chance try at the blues.

And we hit 'em. At times, all four rods were straining simultaneously to the surging splashing of bluefish fighting astern, and we boated 21 good ones while losing as many more in some 40 minutes of furious, wonderful action.

"Enough?" Gibby Young asked with daylight fast running out. And we had enough.

Hens Face Gettysburg At Local Stadium In Saturday Homecoming Football Game

Gettysburg Quarterback Jim Ward, who suffered a shoulder separation in the Bullets opener against Hofstra, may return to the lineup for this Saturday's clash with Delaware at the stadium in Newark at 2 p.m.

Ward, a 6-2 and 190-pound senior passing wizard, led the Bullets to the Middle Atlantic Conference championship last year and was named All-State, All-Conference, and Honorable Mention Little All-American. He was the country's fifth best small college passer.

Ward completed 21 of 36 passes for 231 yards as the Bullets upset Delaware 22-19 last year to break a 13-game Blue Hen win streak. He completed 90 of 177 passes for 1,233 yards and 17 touchdowns during the season.

The Bullets' offense will be strengthened further by the return of Fullback Rod Albright from the injured list. Albright averaged almost five yards per carry last season, picking up 254 yards in 51 attempts. He played briefly on defense last week in the Bullets loss to Bucknell.

Gettysburg, pre-season conference favorite with 21 lettermen returning is 0-2 with losses to Hofstra (35-14) and Bucknell (19-10). The Blue Hens lost their opener to Hofstra 17-6.

The Blue Hens are expected to go with the same lineup they used against Hofstra with the possible exception of a switch in the offensive line.

Two-year regular Denny Toddings may start at center, with Ed Anderson moving to guard. Veteran Art Christensen will probably keep the other guard post. Bill Neiger will be the middle guard on defense.

Senior Jay Gibbons and Sophomore Jim Laser are expected to see more action at offensive tackle, allowing Seniors Jim Freebery and Dave Stewart to concentrate on their defensive chores.

Mike Parzycki and Capt. Paul Mueller will be the offensive ends, with Ed Sand and Bill Drueding on defense.

Herb Slattery and Bill Casari are the linebacks.

The offensive backfield will probably have Senior Tom Van Grosfiski at quarterback, Sophomore Brian Wright and Ed Mason at halfback, and Sophomore John Miller at fullback.

The defensive backfield has Don Keister and Ken Bills at the corners, and Bruce Carlyle and Jack Hoopes at safety.

Delaware Coach Dave Nelson is stressing work on the offensive line and defensive secondary for the Blue Hens homecoming game with Gettysburg.

"Our problems are just what we thought they were," Nelson noted following the Hens loss to Hofstra. "We have a weak offensive line and a green defensive backfield."

Mrs. Bill Whitman Wins NCC Ladies Day Golf Play

Mrs. William S. Whitman won the Ladies Day golf event at the Newark Country Club last Tuesday.

Mrs. Edward Woodhouse won second place honors, and Mrs. Bruce Ward was third. Mrs. Robert Board reports.

Ciesinski's Racers Lose To Dickinson In Second Setback

Coach Ray Ciesinski's Yellowjacket harriers lost their second cross country meet of the season yesterday afternoon at Rockford Park, with Dickinson High School stopping Newark 15-64.

Bill Babb led the Newark runners home with a sixth place finish, followed by Steve Arimoto in seventh place.

Dickinson's Ron Niblett paced the field over the 2.3-mile route in 11:38. The Yellowjackets lost their opener last Friday to DeLaWarr.

Newark faces Conrad this Friday, and Christiana next Wednesday over the Rockford route.

Brandywine Final For Polo Season Slated On Sunday

For the final match, Brandywine will field Dr. Deaver Alexander, George Weymouth, Don Ross Jr., and Fred Fortugno to oppose the Unionville quartet of John Cheshire, Norm Taylor, Bob Connors and Charlie Walker.

In the 18-week schedule that began May 30, with bi-weekly arena and outdoor field matches, Brandywine has registered a 22-6 record.

The eighth annual Gerald Balding Memorial eight-goal Tournament was won by Middleburg (Va.) PC, and its consolation event, the Tar Baby Plate, was won by Cave Creek Polo Club of Huntington, L.V.
