Four From
Delaware
Among 28
Other Engineers

Four University of Delaware scientists have a major role this week at Oak Ridge, Tennessee, in a Symposium on Heat Transfer, supported by the Atomic Energy Commission. The week-long sessions are sponsored by the NEPA (Nuclear Energy for Propulsion of Aircraft) Division of Fairchild Engine and Airplane Corporation.

Of 28 lectures, the four to be presented by the Delaware representatives will be equalled in number only by the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, of all the nation's topflight engineering schools.

The four University of Delaware engineers are Dr. Allan P. Colburn, assistant to the President and advisor on research; Dr. Robert L. Pigford, professor of chemical engineering; Dr. Olaf P. Bergelin, associate professor of chemical engineering; and George M. Dushinberre, professor of mechanical engineering.

The papers to be presented by Dr. Colburn and Dr. Bergelin will be based upon research carried out at the University of Delaware, where the field of heat transfer has been among special topics for research in the last 10 years. Dr. Bergelin's paper will be on "Heat Transfer to Oils in Tubular Exchangers." Dr. Colburn, who until recently was chairman of the Department of Chemical Engineering, will lecture on "The Effect of Vapor Velocity on Condensation Inside Tubes." This paper will report on research work conducted with the cooperation of the Andale Company.

Of the 28 lectures, four each will be by Delaware and M. I. T. engineers, three from the University of Michigan, three from industry, two from Harvard, and one each from Iowa State College, Ohio State University, Johns Hopkins University, Purdue University, Washington University, Princeton University, and the universities of Iowa, Texas, Missouri, California, Tennessee and Alabama.

XMAS MAIL DEADLINE IS MONDAY

Out Of State
Package, Card
Mailing Heavy

All Christmas cards for out-of-state delivery, and all Christmas packages, should be in the mail this week in order to ensure their arrival before Christmas.

"The heavy flood of gift packages and Christmas cards in post offices all over the United States makes early mailing essential," Postmaster C. E. Rittenhouse explained. Christmas cards for local delivery should be mailed before December 15, he said.

"Envelopes and packages may be marked 'Do Not Open Until Christmas' if desired," the Postmaster advised. "Such notes are permitted both on parcel post and on regular mail, including Christmas cards sent third-class with a 1 1/2 cent stamp."

The Postmaster warned that envelopes of third-class mail may not be sealed, either by licking the flap or by closing with Christmas seals, although Christmas seals may be affixed to the back of the envelope.

DOUGLAS WINS GOLF TOURNAMENT AT ORLANDO

Former Local
Pro Defeats
Jim Demaret
In Playoff

His ninth one-putt green for a birdie three on the 19th gave 29-year-old Davey Douglas, 130 East Park Place, Newark, a one-stroke victory over Jimmy Demaret of Ojai, Calif., in a playoff for the third annual Orlando Open golf title Monday.

Herman Keiser, of Akron, O., took third place. Douglas, Demaret and Keiser finished the 72-hole event over the 6,454 yard Dobsdread Country Club Monday tied with 274s.

Douglas won his victory on the green. He never three-putted and when he didn't sink his first putt he was always within easy range. He took only 29 putts on the 19 holes while Demaret needed 34.

Douglas went ahead on the early holes but Demaret made a comeback on the second nine and the two tied at the end of 18 with par 71s. Starting over again as they had agreed before beginning the playoff, Demaret and Douglas had almost identical drives of nearly 300 yards.

Douglas was away and chipped across the ditch onto the green about four feet from the cup. Demaret's second also was on the green but 15 feet from the pin. He putted within two inches of the cup and holed out for a par.

The Delaware pro then calmly sank his shot for the victory and first prize money of $2,000.

Demaret's second place was good for $1,400 and Keiser got $1,000 for third place.

All three played carefully throughout the match. Demaret and Douglas both birdied the first but Demaret took a two over par five on the third when his tee shot stopped on the inside bank of a trap and he three-putted after getting out.

Douglas was two strokes in the lead after a birdie four on the fourth and (Please turn to page 8)

ASSEMBLY PROGRAM

In Form
Of Radio Show

Grade 4 gave an assembly program entitled "Our American Music." It was a lively television radio show. The play opened with Virginia Moore and Virginia Starkey twirling to the time of "El Capitain." Raymond Windle, the Station Announcer, then introduced Uncle Sam, Norwood Bonney. Uncle Sam then became master of ceremonies. First he introduced the Indians who were Mary Ann Little, Dorothea Kakavas, Dorothy Gray, and Fay LaGrange. They danced and the choir sang "An Indian Lullaby." Carol Murray, our Pilgrim Maid, next came forth. She talked about music in the colonial days and our colonial twins, Peggy Young and Randolph Lindell, they did a stately "Minute." They introduced the colored tap dancers Karen Schcamann and Susan Handloff who tapped to "Turkey in the Straw." The next period was devoted to patriotic songs. Miss Liberty led in the singing of "Hail Columbia." The Pioneer Lad, John Miller talked about mountain dancers. A group then danced to "Pop Goes the Weasel." George Barczewski, a colored boy led the class in a rhyme called "In Came De Animals." Stephen Foster, Fritz Wolf came to the microphone and talked about the songs he wrote. The choir sang "Old Black Joe." Carol Moore, Miss Civil War led in the song "Dixie." A friend of Francis Scott Key, Ray Vannoy, told how the "Star Spangled Banner" was written. The entire school joined in the singing of that song and ended the program.

LENIENCY WON BY LOCAL GIRL

Natalie Pierce
Gets Suspended
Jail Sentence

Natalie Pierce, 15, of Newark, was released into the custody of her married sister under a suspended sentence of five years imprisonment by Judge James P. McGranery in the Philadelphia U. S. District Court.

The Pierce girl has been in custody since she was captured by FBI agents in Tucson, Ariz., together with Norman Lee Rechuba, also of Newark, several weeks after the West Grove, Pa., National Bank and Trust Company was robbed of $8,300 in a daylight holdup.

Rechuba, now committed to the Pennsylvania State Hospital for the Insane, and Lawrence L. Griffin, 28, of Newark, were charged with the armed holdup and robbery of the bank. Police said then the Pierce girl had nothing to do with the holdup, and knew nothing about it.

Stating that he was giving the girl "one more chance," the jurist warned her that if she did not "behave," she would be dealt with severely. He said that if she falls in love with a "decent fellow and want to marry him," the judge will reduce the sentence.

CHRISTMAS TREE FACTS ADVOCATED

Number One on the Yuletide "musts" is the traditional Christmas tree. How to select it is important right now when so many of us are ready for the annual tree-buying spree.

Some pointers on selection are offered by no less an authority than Martin L. Davey, Jr., president of The Davey Tree Expert Co., who says there are four basic features to look for:

1. Shape and size count most, so make sure your tree tapers from a moderately wide base to a spire top.

2. Branches should be fairly close together for that lush, uniform appearance and should come well down to the base.

3. Foliage should be of attractive color, of good texture and abundant.

4. Wherever possible, select the fir over the spruce. The former retains its needles much longer in a warm room.

The Balsam fir is the ideal tree for Christmas ornamentation. Since it is available generally only in the north-eastern states and the Great Lakes area, other sections have to depend upon various other evergreens. In the South, there is the Fraser balsam fir, the whitecedar falsecypress, the long-leaf and slash pines and the eastern redcedar. The Rocky Mountain states have the Englemann spruce, common douglasfir and the lodgepole pine, among others. The West Coast likes the white and silver fir and the California incensecedar. The Norway spruce is admired in the Middle East and North-east. The black spruce is common in New York, Pennsylvania and New England.

Each holiday, more and more people are buying living trees, nicely balled and burlapped, which can be planted directly after. Only requirement is that you keep the ball moist when it is indoors.

ALUMNI TO HOLD DANCE

The Newark Alumni Association is sponsoring the annual semi-formal Christmas Dance in the high school gymnasium on December 25, 1947, from 8 to 12. The ever popular Stan Barton and the "Royalists," including two alumni vocalists, will furnish the music.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer Shue, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Kutz, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McVey, Mr. and Mrs. J. Harvey Dickey, Mr. and Mrs. Grover Surratt, and Dick Davis, president of the Student Council.

Many members of the Association have served on the committees.

The following have acted as chairmen: Orchestra, Clyde Baylis; Patrons and Patronesses, Joseph McVey; Publicity, Shirley Ritchie; Tickets, Sam Talucci; and Decorations, Ella Jayne Hamilton.

TUBER WORM REPORTED IN DELAWARE

Destroy Cull Potatoes In Spring Crops

Damage to late potatoes by the potato tuber worm is being reported in Delaware, according to Dr. L. A. Stearns, extension entomologist for the University of Delaware.

Similar reports that the worm has been unusually abundant in Maryland and Virginia have been received by Dr. Stearns. To answer the frequent requests being received for information on methods to eliminate this pest in potatoes now in storage, Dr. Stearns reveals that few treatments have been practical.

Since the potato takes up odors and flavors readily and retains them for definite periods, Dr. Stearns recommends fumigation of the potatoes in storage with carbon bisulfide.

Carbon bisulfide does not injure the potatoes. It can be applied for long periods and since it is heavier than air, it is liberated at the top of a pile of stored potatoes and goes entirely through the pile to the floor.

The fumigant should be used at the rate of 5 pounds to each 1,000 cubic feet of space for a 48-hour exposure with the temperature 65 degrees F. or above. The liquid should be placed on top of the sacks in shallow tin pans. Care should be taken not to expose the sacks to fire, since it is explosive when mixed with air and ignited. Two or three such fumigations are often required during the winter for effective control.

Dr. Mosher Addresses Penn. State Gathering

Dr. William A. Mosher, professor of chemistry and chairman of the Department of Chemistry at the University of Delaware, was the speaker at the Dec. 4 meeting of the Central Pennsylvania Section of the American Chemical Society, at the Pennsylvania State College. Dr. Mosher, who spoke on Organic Oxidation Mechanisms, presented information recently obtained by the Chemistry Department of the University on the manner in which molecules of foodstuffs, gasoline, paint, rubber, and alcohols are first attacked by oxygen from the air or by oxidizing agents.

Dr. Mosher is active in both Delaware and National American Chemical Society affairs.

Newark Homemaker Contest Winner

Mrs. Earl Leasure, Newark, a homemaker with a family of seven, was named first winner of the weekly "Best and Meat Savers" contest for homemakers, conducted by the Delaware Agricultural Extension Service on a farm radio program, The Delaware Farm and Home Hour.

Mrs. Leasure's meat-saving suggestion was a recipe for Fried Tomatoes, named in the summer for winter use. Any homemaker who plans and cooks meals for her household is eligible to enter the weekly contest. Food saving ideas may include recipes that conserve meat or grain, methods of using leftovers, storage methods that reduce waste, or any other way in which a homemaker is saving meat, grain or oil.

STUDENT TEACHERS ORGANIZE

Looking toward the formation of a professional organization for University of Delaware students preparing for the teaching field, a meeting has been called for Thursday evening in the auditorium of the Chemical Laboratory on the campus.

The meeting, which will start at 7:30 p. m., is the outcome of a series of student-faculty conferences held recently in the office of Dr. W. Earl Armstrong, Dean of the University's School of Education. All the 265 students enrolled in that school and any other students interested in the teaching profession will be eligible to attend.

Students have pointed out the need for a professional organization, during the student-faculty conferences, and a committee was formed to investigate the various national groups with which the Delaware students might affiliate. The committee's report will be received at next week's meeting.

If the recommendations are received favorably, the committee hopes to form a temporary group immediately, with officers selected to apply to the faculty committee on student organizations for formal recognition.

Among the possibilities examined by the committee for possible national affiliation were professional fraternities and sororities, the Future Teachers of America (an affiliate of the National Education Association), a national recognition society. The prospect for a purely local organization also has been considered.

OPERATION OF BLACK MARKET HIT

Building Trade Irregularities Are Criticized

A report of widespread black market operations in critically needed building materials came Tuesday from Chairman Gamble (R-NY) of a joint congressional committee on housing.

Reporting on the committee's hearings in 25 major cities, Gamble also criticized what he termed the "astounding confusion of War Assets Administration policies" in allocating short supplies.

He said, for example, that under the WAA, surplus nails "go first to the black market, then to the builders—or if the builders get them first, it is only through out-bidding the black marketers."

"If the committee can obtain the cooperation of WAA as well as the manufacturers, black market traffic in nails at the expense of homeless American families can be quickly stopped," he said.

Gamble said it now appears that 800,000 new dwelling units will have been started by Dec. 31, but declared this number "will not even meet our normal national housing expansion requirements." The figure, he said, will probably have to be stepped up by at least 50 per cent for the next four or five years.

The New Yorker proffered a pat on the back for labor unions in helping to solve the housing crisis, declaring that construction workers are now displaying "the American will to produce rather than simply to jack up pay through monopoly and cultivated over-time."

In this connection, he cited New York pledges against "feather bedding" practices in the use of time-saving machinery, such as power saws. Also, he mentioned the Chicago Building Trade Council's agreement for painters to use spray guns and for all trades to erect pre-fabricated houses.

Gamble said an investigation of the lumber industry had failed to produce a "satisfactory answer" on the high cost of lumber.

"It may be necessary to examine our entire lumber export checking machinery," he said. "It may also be desirable to look further into the profits of lumber manufacturers."

Warning Of Fuel Oil, Gas Shortage Issued

The fuel oil and gasoline situation in this area along the Atlantic Seaboard will be serious this winter—if the winter turns out to be a severe one, and if motorists and householders fail to cooperate in spreading the available supply.

This was announced by Hugh M. Giggatt, Delaware state chairman of the oil industry's public relations committee, in a recent program over station WILM.

Mr. Giggatt listed four points whereby the public in Delaware can cooperate to stretch the supply of fuel oil and gasoline as follows:

Drive cars in a more conservative manner and take good care of automobiles.

Fill and keep filled fuel oil tanks for use at peak demand.

Maintain moderate temperatures in homes during this heating season.

Check oil burners now in use, many of which are outmoded and which are consuming much more fuel than they should.

Ware Abouts

Try as you will to be extremely careful and get everything right and just then's the time you're sure to slip up and get the one thing wrong that you try hardest to get right . . . Or, has it ever happened to you?

Of course some individuals are perfect (at least in their own estimation) and never make mistakes. But, we're human and readily admit that we are far from being the smartest person in the world . . . and that to err is human and in this department we manage to hold up our end beautifully.

So, again we have a couple of mistakes in the recently printed and published Newark Telephone Directory.

To say that we are sincerely sorry soothes not the irate disposition of the wronged subscriber no whit but that's about all we can do about it except to ask your cooperation in this unfortunate circumstance.

The Newark Directory contains a few more than nineteen hundred names. So far we have had brought to our attention two wrong numbers. Maybe there are more but that's all we've heard about. If there are others, we hope the injured parties will call it to our attention and give us the opportunity of doing the best we can to correct the error.

We well realize that it's no fun to answer your phone continually only to find that the caller is dialing your number through error in trying to reach another party . . . and by the same token it's bad for persons wishing to call you to continually be getting someone else due to an incorrect listing in the directory.

Nevertheless, two errors in numbers exist (that we know of) and while two errors out of nineteen hundred isn't a bad batting average, it's not good either and we wish to do what we can to partially eliminate the resultant confusion and dissatisfaction.

Dr. C. R. Donoho, physician's office at 35 W. Delaware Avenue, Newark, is erroneously listed in the Newark Directory as 8-3811. It should read 8-311.

John T. Beck, residence 13 Annabella Street, Newark, is listed as 2-6971. It should read 2-6791.

We ask that each subscriber take his Newark Directory NOW and make the two corrections above in his own book. If every subscriber will do this, it isn't much of an individual chore and it will help the cause a lot . . . relieving Dr. Donoho and Mr. Beck of considerable annoyance and inconvenience and at the same time alleviate our concern.

We're sincerely sorry for these errors but even the large Wilmington Directory occasionally makes regrettable errors as do most people at one time or another.

In the same vein, our own name is listed wrong in the current book. Fortunately our correct telephone number appears but our initials are given as A. T. which correctly spells "at" but does not correctly convey our identification . . . and the same applies to Dr. W. Owen Sypherd who is inadvertently listed as "W. D. Sypherd."

A trifle more pleasant subject is the elaborate new B. & O. crossing completed at long last recently and which looks like it might have been done right for once. For years local citizens have fought and bumped their way over this rocky crossing and we're very glad that Councilman George Ramsey (former B. & O. engineer) was instrumental in obtaining this fine project for our and his town.

Incidentally the above referred to councilman is spending his thirty days at Hot Springs, Arkansas, where he'll be through the Yule holidays and we'd like to suggest that well-wishers drop him a greeting card there . . . a gesture of remembrance and thoughtfulness that we know he'll take kindly.

. . . and we hope he returns full of his old vim, vigor and vitality and make things hum in his old habitats. Which he'll probably do well enough without our mentioning it, anyway.

Jim Cox, nephew of Dr. Clyde Montague Cox, is the new manager at the Newark Cleaners & Dyers, Inc., succeeding amiable Bill Worrall who, we understand is back selling Fords when he's not busy rabbit hunting, shooting pheasants or attending football games. 'Tis wisely said that: "Folks using tact have little to retract."

Christmas is coming—and while its a season of pleasure and joy to us all, it sure does leave a wide path of destruction through the middle of our pocket-book.

As chronicled here last week, Barney Renshaw reopened the Academy Restaurant on Monday but we're inclined to think that it was from necessity rather than choice.

Natalie Pierce should, and probably does, count herself a lucky girl to have escaped the serious West Grove bank robbery mess with nothing worse than a suspended sentence which, Judge McGrawney said he'd reduce if she found a nice fellow and wanted to marry him. We regret that we will not be able to publish any Santa Claus letters this year.

The Sports Post

By Sean N. Hurd

Now it's up to Michigan to establish its claim to No. 1 rating in 1947 college football circles by the only method now available—the defeat of Southern California by a margin of more than 31 points in the Rose Bowl come January 1. That's the surprising margin by which Notre Dame trampled the Trojans, the exact count being 38-7.

Completing their first undefeated and untied season since 1930, Coach Frank Leahy's mighty Irish machine mauled Southern California by moving almost entirely on the ground, including T. D. dashes of 92 and 76 yards.

Throughout the season we've rather been of the opinion that Michigan could nudge Notre Dame—but now we have serious doubts. It may not prove anything, but it'll be interesting to see how the Wolverines fare against the pride of the Pacific Coast Conference.

As the contestants in bowl game after bowl game were announced we found no mention of the Cigar Bowl—and wondered whether the Tampa tussle inaugurated by Delaware's Blue Hen with a victory over Rollins last New Year's Day had been abandoned. Finally came the word that neighboring West Chester Teachers College had been selected for the classic sponsored by Tampa's Egypt Temple Shrine. A few days later the Rams' opponent was announced—Missouri Valley College of Marshall, Missouri.

We know nothing about the calibre of the teams which the Missouri Vikings have overcome, but solely of the basis of undefeated strings it appears that Cigar Bowl officials have carded a splendid attraction. Missouri Valley, undefeated since 1941, has an undefeated streak of 30 games—coincidentally, the exact number Delaware sported when the Hens invaded Tampa. The Teachers, with 10 wins in 1947, have not tasted defeat in 15 consecutive contests.

'S matter of fact, the bowl engagements arranged for this coming January 1 seem to offer the finest football feast offered to the fans at any time. It's true that Southern California's defeat by the Irish has taken some of the lustre off the Rose Bowl game—but let's take a look at some of the other major meetings.

In New Orleans the Sugar Bowl offers Alabama and Texas. The Crimson Tide, after a victory and then two early season losses, finished furiously with seven straight wins, tallying 203 points to 74 by opponents. On the other side, the Longhorns, having scored 265 points in ten games, lost only to S. M. U. by the margin of a missed conversion, 14-13. And don't forget that this game will match two of the nation's best backs—Alabama's Harry Gilmer and Texas' Bobby Layne.

Down Dallas way it'll be Southern Methodist versus Penn State in the Cotton Bowl. The Nittany Lions, only perfect record team in the East, amassed 319 points in nine clashes while blanking six opponents and limiting the other three to a total of 27 points. State has a mighty impressive record but it hasn't met the calibre of contestants faced by S. M. U. And the latter won nine out of ten, being tied in their regular season finale 19-19 by Texas Christian.

And still there's more on the table for the hungry football fans to gorge themselves on. Making their third appearance in Miami's Orange Bowl will be a Georgia Tech wrecking crew which in ten games scored 220 points to 35—and 14 of the latter were garnered by Alabama in handing the Engineers their only set-back. Opposing Tech will be Coach George Sauer's Kansas eleven, participating in their first bowl battle. Co-champions of the Big Six Conference—with Oklahoma—the Jayhawks were not toppled in ten tangles but were tied by Texas Christian and the Sooners.

If you're still seeking for more it won't be hard to find. Wouldn't you like to be in Memphis on New Year's Day to see Mississippi tangle with Texas Christian in the Delta Bowl; or in Jacksonville for the Gator Bowl and Maryland's Terrapins versus Georgia's Bulldogs; or in Birmingham's Dixie Bowl to witness William and Mary against Arkansas' Razorbacks? Well, we would—and what a beating our radio will take. We're sure to be as busy twisting the dials and turning from game to game as a tired ticket taker and turnstile tender at an Army-Navy game.

We note that Mühlenberg, last-play 20-14 victors over the Blue Hens, gave plenty of recognition to Delaware when an all-opponent team was selected by the Mules. The Alltown adversaries named no less than four Hens—Marsa, Messick, Cole, and Coady. Murray's men didn't quite reciprocate. They named only two Mules on an all-opponent eleven dominated by four Washington and Lee stalwarts (not including passer Dick Working) and including three of Maryland's Gator-bound Terrapins. Lu (Lambino) Gambino? You bet!

DELAWARE COURT FIVE OPENS HARDWOOD SEASON AGAINST TEMPLE COLLEGE

Blue Hens Have Three Exhibition Contests Scheduled Before Christmas Recess; Washington College In First Game Here On December 13

Joe Brunansky's University of Delaware courtmen opened up their 1947-48 cage campaign Wednesday evening in the field house.

The Blue Hens have three contests scheduled before the Christmas recess, including two home exhibitions. The passers will face the Washington College quintet on Dec. 13 in Newark, and travel to Gettysburg the following week.

The return of Jimmy McFadden, former Salesianum star, and Jules Hoffstein from the fall sports' squads have been big boons to the Hen hopes for a successful season.

The two miles who sparked the Blue and Gold through the last season should be in good shape by whistle time.

Capt. Jerry Bowlus, high-scoring senior, suffered a delay in his personal conditioning program last week when he was forced to call time and have a tonsilectomy. However the former All-Philadelphia Catholic League ace has been leading the passers' drills for almost a month now, and should be back in form soon.

Joe Brunansky, in his second year as Delaware basketball coach, has been spending most of his time grooming a "big man" to operate with the Hen courtmen. Vic Wood, who saw varsity duty last year; Ray Ciesinski, and Carroll Hauptle compose all of the height in the Hen varsity fold. Ciesinski, only recently converted from a grid tackle, and Hauptle, who is not in action yet after a grid injury, both stand well over the six-foot mark, and throw enough weight around to be a lot of assistance to the little fellows in the Hen lineup.

Newcomers who should make a mark in the Hen roster include Barney Runcle, a pre-war star; Bill Owen, Bob Gregory, and Joe Pennoek. The presence of these recruits makes the fight for starting berths on the Hen five a stiff battle, and any and all of these may work their way into the first string posts as the season commences.

The Delaware cagers will make the longest sortie in the history of basketball at the university over the Christmas holidays when they travel to Detroit, where they will mix it with Lawrence Tech. The jaunt will also include a stop in Buffalo, N. Y., where the Hens will meet the University of Buffalo.

As an aftermath of their 1947 campaign, the Delaware soccer team, under the tutelage of Max Kurman, elected Dick Ewing of Wilmington and Bob Brodie co-captains for the 1948 season. Both will be in their last year of collegiate competition next fall.

DR. CARLSON PRAISES HENS

Forty-five members of the University of Delaware football squad were honored at a banquet in Old College Commons.

Dr. William S. Carlson, president of the university, presided over the party and praised the players for the untiring efforts, spirit and sportsmanship they evidenced throughout the year.

Other guests included student managers and members of the coaching staff, headed by Bill Murray, athletic director and head football coach.

Each member of the team received a monogrammed necktie, while their wives received monogrammed scarves, the gifts of Dr. Carlson, former Judge Hugh Morris, chairman of the board of trustees, and J. Pearce Cann, member of the board's athletic commission.

John J. DeLuca, member of the Athletic Council, spoke briefly and told the players that he, for one, was quite happy to see Delaware's string of 32 consecutive unbeaten games come to a halt, thus easing the strain on players and followers.

Other speakers included Coach Murray, who thanked Dr. Carlson for the dinner and his cooperation throughout the year, Judge Morris, and Mr. Cann. Atty-Gen. Albert W. James and Mrs. James and Dr. Charles N. Lanier, faculty representative on the Athletic Council, and his wife also attended. James is a member of the trustees' athletic committee.

19,996 Cars Rejected At Inspection Lanes

Frank L. Reed, state motor vehicle commissioner, has disclosed that 19,996 of the vehicles brought to inspection lanes during the year had to be repaired and reexamined before passing inspection. He said that 50,155 of the 70-131 vehicles brought to the lanes were approved on initial examination.

Mr. Reed said that defective tires are the most frequent causes of failure of automobiles in Delaware to pass inspection. He disclosed that 6,951 of the cars that were rejected had defective tires.

Relief Fund At U. Of D. Increased To $2300

Incomplete returns from the University of Delaware's campaign for the University World-Relief Fund brought the total to $2300, it was announced by Dr. Carl J. Rees, faculty co-chairman of the campus drive.

The reports to date includes 100 per cent subscriptions by eight buildings on the campus, namely, Phi Kappa Tau and Alpha Epsilon Pi fraternities and New Castle, Warner, Boletus and Turvey Halls, Park Place and Courtney Place, girls' dormitories.

The present total represents the results of intensive solicitation last week, plus proceeds from the sale of chrysanthemums at the Delaware-F. & M. football game. Although organized campaigning will be suspended for awhile, further money-raising projects will be launched later in an effort to reach the university's goal of $5,000.

Miss Dolores Tondat is student co-chairman of the drive.

FROSH TO PLAY ELEVEN GAMES

Brown Prep First Game December 13

Coach Bob Siemen's Delaware freshmen will play 11 basketball games this season, according to the schedule completed today. The card begins here Dec. 13 against Brown Prep, crack Philadelphia team. With the exception of the opener, all the games will be in the new Middle Atlantic Freshman Conference.

Frosh candidates include Joe Kwiatkowski, of last season's Salesianum quint. Several former P. S. duPont athletes also decorate the squad, and Jim Middleton, a 1947 product, and Jimmy Thomas, who comes via the Army and the C. Y. O. League, should prove a big help to the Blue and Gold chances. Claymont's Jack (Doc) Green, a 6-foot-3 cager; Archmere's Chick Daley; Conrad's Bob Smith, and former C. Y. O. passer Art Sullivan are almost sure bets to see lots of action this winter. Other standouts in pre-season frosh drills have been Curt Turner, 6-foot-2 Collingswood, N. J. product, and Frank Albera. The schedule:

Five Veterans Back From Last Year's Squad; Two New Coaches For Locals William Morrison And H. Lewis Miller

Newark High School 1947-48 basketball team is practicing in preparations for their schedule which opens January 6 against Alexis I. duPont on their home court.

Mr. William Morrison and Mr. H. Lewis Miller will be coaching the locals this year. They have five veterans back from last year's squad: Bob Gregg, Joe Semar, Don Martin, Tony Cosetti, and Phil Harrison. Though the boys do not have very much height they have lots of experience, and they showed last year they had lots of fight and won a few games which different ones thought they could not pull out of the bag.

Thirty-two other boys are out to make the team and the new coaches should be able to have lots of reserves and the Wilmington teams are going to find the locals a tough combination.

PRACTICES LISTED FOR 48 PROGRAM

With a good start on statewide soil conservation problems, the 1948 Delaware Agricultural Conservation Program will offer five conservation practices which farmers may follow on their farms.

Under the 1948 program, according to C. E. Ocheltree, chairman of the Delaware Production and Marketing Administration Committee, the approved conservation practices will include application of liming materials, application of superphosphate, seeding of winter cover crops, establishment of permanent pastures, and construction of farm drainage.

Ocheltree reports that in Sussex County committeemen are expected to emphasize the farm drainage practice and the application of liming materials. In the other counties of the State it is believed that all practices will find ready acceptance by most farmers. It is expected, however, that fewer drainage practices will be completed in the northern part of the state than in Sussex County.

The schedule:

January 6—Alexis I. duPont, home.
January 8—P. S. duPont, home.
January 13—Claymont, home.
January 16—Conrad, home.
January 20—Brown, home.
January 27—Smyrna, away.
January 30—Salesianum, away.
February 3—P. S. duPont, away.
February 6—Alexis I. duPont, away.
February 13—Conrad, away.
February 17—Friends, home, 4:30 p. m.
February 20—Open date.
February 24—Salesianum, home, 3:30 p. m.
February 27—Brown, away.
March 2—Wilmington High, home.
March 5—Claymont, away.

Twirling Class To Give Program

"Mr. Farmer... Feed is Food"—this is the message to Delaware farmers in a special folder prepared by the Delaware Agricultural Extension Service.

The folder now being distributed throughout the state by the Extension Service and representatives of the State Livestock Feed Conservation Committee lists three general feed-saving practices—making the most of farm-grown feeds and roughage, proper storage of feed and keeping animals healthy by proper sanitation.

Feed-saving and money-saving hints to poultrymen are care in the handling of live poultry, not over-crowding brooders, culling the loafers and poor-performers, use of green feeds, preventing waste in filling hoppers, feeding a balanced ration, and marketing birds when they are ready for market and it is profitable to do so.

Suggestions to dairymen include feeding plenty of silage and hay, protecting cattle from the weather, selling scrub bulls and breeding artificially, keeping production records, and feeding according to production.

Private Duty Nurses Raise Rate To $9 Daily

Members of the private duty section of the Delaware State Nurses Association have increased their rates from $8 a day to $9 a day for an eight-hour shift.

Last month the group asked the state association for permission to raise their salary rates. The increase was approved at a meeting of the executive board of the state group.

The $8-a-day salary scale went into effect in November, 1946. Prior to that time the rate was $7 per eight hour day. More than 225 nurses are now listed with the D. S. N. A. Directory.

The Christmas P-T. A. will be on Wednesday, December 17, at 8 p. m. Rehearsals are going along smoothly for the entertainment which will include two plays, "Martha Briggs' Christmas Candle," and "A Christmas Quarrel," as well as a five piece orchestra to accompany the singing of the Christmas carols, recitations, and special musical numbers. Santa Claus will play his annual visit.

Reports for the second marking period have been issued. Shirley Ann Zistl, grade three; Marina Pollari and "Teddy" Schwartz, grade two with all "A's" are on the first honor roll. Maya Zistl, grade three; Karina Pollari and grade five, with all "A's" but one and that a "B" have earned places on the second honor roll.

of Delaware have been visited by A. A. U. W. members as their contribution to the council's state-wide work on the school system Mrs. Bert S. Norling is serving as committee chairman.

The administrative and financial structure of Delaware's school system, the Newark Jaycee project, is an outgrowth of one of the bills presented by the council to the 19th General Assembly. This piece of legislation would have created the office of commissioner of education, one of the council's recommended points. Such an office, as offered by the council, would have the powers and protection of a five to seven-year contract rather than the one-year contract now awarded the state superintendent of public instruction.

Under this office, the council has explained, a number of other important educational problems could be solved. These include: The determination of a minimum state education program; equitable distribution of funds; redistricting and consolidation of schools, and the reallocation of functions and authorities among the various boards.

Recommendations of this, and other study groups, will be used to prepare legislation for the 1949 General Assembly.

A complete handbook of projects, members, officers and general work of the council has been prepared for organizations which now hold membership in the state-wide body.

The study committee on personnel and teacher load, headed by J. O. Corner, will deal with problems relating to state and city teachers, including qualifications, training and recruitment, salary, system of salary increases working conditions and morale. This group will also continue the survey work begun last year.

Douglas Wins

finished the nine with that margin in spite of trouble when he got into the trees on number 5.

A trap put Demaret one over par on the 10th, Douglas taking a three-stroke lead which he held until Demaret birdied the 13th. Keiser had fallen far back, going one over par on the seventh, ninth, 12th and 13th.

Douglas was behind the trees again on the 16th and hit one of them with his second shot. The ball went out of bounds. An expert chip shot that almost holed out kept him from going more than one over par but Demaret gained a stroke and was only one behind.

He made that up with a 21-foot putt on the 17th.

Demaret's tee shot on the 18th was in a clump of trees but he came out well to get his par and halve the hole as Douglas missed a putt and took a par.

The young Wilmington pro, assistant to his father at Rock Manor Golf Club, and former pro at the Newark Country Club, won his first big money in golf. In the second Orlando Open a year ago, shortly after his release from the Army, he finished out of the money with 287.

Here is one good way to sharpen your financial foresight.

If you put aside that amount from your pay each week into U. S. Bonds—through Payroll Savings—it grows into the sum on the second line ($390.00) by the end of one year. Quick as that!

Read on down—$783.70 . . . $1182.65 . . . $1590.65 . . . $2009.02—that's how much you've piled up by the fifth year with your $7.50 a week.

($2009.02 may be a small figure on the chart, but it's certainly big in the things it can buy you!)

Take a good look at the next few figures—$2437.89 . . . $2879.52 . . . $3341.90 . . . $3825.15. They're growing bigger and bigger all the time!

Now fix your eyes on that bottom line for a real eye-opener—$4329.02! Think of what a whopping sum like that could mean to you and your family! And you save it in only ten years! Isn't it easy to see now how regular weekly savings—through Payroll Savings—can pile up money practically hand over fist for you?

Just to prove how financially foresighted you really are, why not put aside an extra bond into your Payroll Savings this month? Or pick up an extra one at any bank or post office!

TRAFFIC ON STATE ROADS ON INCREASE

Newark Count Shows 3,976 Cars A Day

Traffic on Delaware roads showed a 7.53 per cent increase during November over the same month last year, the monthly report of the traffic engineering division of the Delaware Highway Department reveals. The report, released recently, shows also a 10.92 per cent increase over November, 1941.

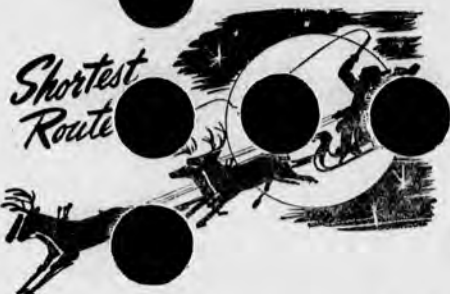

As shown in the automatic counters on the state's roads, a total of 11,525 vehicles was counted on the Delaware highway system during the month of November, 1947. This is the highest count in any day in a 12-month period. On Nov. 9, 1947, the district near Milford on U. S. Route 113, when 8,563 vehicles were counted.

A monthly increase in percentage of 11.05 on State Route No. 2 between Wilmington and Newark over November, 1946, was the highest increase in any area. The increase on U. S. Route No. 202 North of Talleyville was 10.92 per cent, and on Route 13 south of Greenwood .21 per cent.

Counts were not taken on two roads where counters are located, Route 13 north of Milford, and State Route 36 southwest of Milford, because the roads are under construction.

At the two points where the count is taken by paver sills, county route No. 104, south of Cheswold, and county route No. 88, north of Dover, a decline of 10.92 per cent for the month compared to the corresponding period last year was recorded.

Maximum traffic for one day at the various counter points were: North of Talleyville, 6,148 vehicles; east of Newark, 3,976; south of Greenwood, 4,035; south of Cheswold, 648, and north of Dover, 463.
