

Filing Deadline Passes With Town Election Slate Unchanged

No Additional Candidates Join Race; Voters Reminded Town Taxes Must Be Paid In Full To Be Eligible
To Cast Ballot April 10

The last-minute rush of candidates for the town election, customary in previous campaigns, failed to develop this year, and the filing deadline passed on Saturday with no additional contestants joining those already in the running.

The line-up thus shapes up with seven candidates bidding for three Council seats, providing contests in all three districts.

A warning that some voters may be disappointed when they turn up at the polls on April 10 was issued this week by Charles Long, town secretary-treasurer. They won't be eligible to cast a ballot, he pointed out, unless their town taxes are paid in full as called for by the town charter.

About 4,000 potential voters, half non-property owners, are currently on the municipal rolls. Freeholders must pay a property tax, and a capitation tax is levied on non-property owners. Mr. Long could not give figures on the number of delinquent tax accounts.

The deadline for payment, he said, will be the end of business on April 9. The Council Offices will be closed all day during the election, which will be held in the firehouse. The polls will open between 7 and 7:30 a.m. and close at 1 p.m.

Highlight of the slate is the three-year term in the eastern district where Nemo Battersby, incumbent, is running against two newcomers to the political scene, Harry Dawson, real estate agent, and Donald Hill, department manager for Sears-Roebuck.

In the middle district, Samuel Diehl, running out his first term with the lawmakers, is opposed to George Jackson, business and veteran Chamber of Commerce leader, who is making his first try for a Council post.

In the western district, Dr. John G. Downes, retired physician and town health officer, is going before the voters for the first time even though he has seen several months' service on the Council. He was appointed to his post to fill the unexpired term of Robert C. Lewis.

Dr. Downes is running against George Wilson, Negro civic leader and business man, who is making his second attempt for a Council seat. Last year he was defeated by Carl S. Rankin.

Cubs Fly Homemade Kites In Competition

Dads Serve As Co-Pilots
Saturday

Den Seven of Cub Pack 55 took to the open spaces of Ogletown last Saturday to stage an old fashioned kite flying contest.

Only homemade kites, fashioned by the cubs with the help of their dads, could be entered. Some of the fathers turned out to co-pilot their contraptions.

Bill Dannenhauer won the novelty competition with his Dutch Boy kite. The altitude race was taken by Paul Lindell and the messenger race by Rudy Dinkel.

Other entrants were Rodger Breeding, Joseph Huddle and Bayard Martin. The judges were C. B. Brown, Jr. and Ralph Hawthorne. Mrs. W. Dannenhauer is the den mother.

To Prohibit Parking On North Side Of Del. Ave.

Parking may soon be prohibited on the north side of Delaware Avenue between Academy Street and South Chapel Street.

Town Solicitor John P. Sinclair has been ordered to draft an ordinance covering the ruling. The measure probably will come up for consideration at the first May meeting of the Town Council.

Mr. Sinclair also has been ordered to look into the tax exemption status of the Biochemical Research Foundation here. It has been brought to Council attention that two private homes have been erected on what is believed to be Biochemical property. If this is so, it may change the status of the Foundation's land which is now tax exempt.

Novel Design Planned For New NHS Shop-Agriculture Building

The latest features of school architecture will be incorporated in the new shop and agriculture laboratory building to be erected this summer at the Newark High School, according to Supt. Wilmer E. Shue.

Working plans, now being drafted by E. William Martin, Wilmington architect, are expected to be ready for the local building commission by April 13.

The general design for the one-story, painted concrete block structure is the work of the school's industrial arts and vocational agriculture staffs. Mr. Shue said. Faculty members who contributed ideas and rough plans to the architect are Frank Mercer, Ellsworth Hoffman, Neil Osburn and Leonard Hitch.

Securing adequate natural lighting for the building, which will be divided into two large laboratories, proved the biggest design problem, according to Mr. Shue.

The larger of the two rooms, which will extend forty feet from the outside

40 Scout Leaders In Weekend Outing; Ten Are Enrolled

Hikes, Merit Tests Mark
2-Day Staged By Troop 56
At Camp Rodney

Forty leaders and scouts of Troop 56 joined in the season's first hiking and camping trip last weekend at Camp Rodney, near North East, Md.

In addition to a full round of outdoor activities, the scouts carried out a number of tests leading to higher ranks. Merit badges were won by Robert Prickett for bookkeeping and conservation.

Best camper awards went to Peter Cooper, Earl Gibson and George Gibson.

The troop arrived at Rodney Friday evening and returned Sunday afternoon. Feature of the trip was a hike in which the scouts were divided into 4-man groups, each preparing its own meals.

A scouting statue was presented to Alfred Ploger, scoutmaster, and ten tenderfoot scouts were formally welcomed into scouting at ceremonies around a campfire on Saturday night.

In the group were: Stewart Armstrong, Bucky Buckingham, Robert Dann, John Field, Frank Foley, George Martin, Emory Rohrbaugh, Ted Schwartz, Stephen Stanley and Richard Woodring.

Assisting Mr. Ploger in directing the troop were William Peoples and Milton Draper.

17 Bands To Enter Annual State Fete At U. of D. Tomorrow

Parade Through Town To Start At 2 P.M.

Two more high school bands have been added to the roster of those playing in the state band festival at the University of Delaware on Friday.

The two, which bring the total of bands to 17 and the number of musicians to about 750, are those of Wilmington and Laurel High Schools.

Already listed were bands from 15 schools: Georgetown, Milford, Selbyville, Caesar Rodney, Dover, Harrington, Smyrna, Claymont, Bayard Junior High, Newark, Howard, Mt. Pleasant, Alexis I. duPont, Conrad, and P. S. duPont.

2 NHS Juniors Will Attend 9th Annual Girls' State Session

Milmo Fox And Emma Lou
Gray Selected By Students
And Faculty

Miss Milmo Fox and Miss Emma Lou Gray, both juniors at the Newark High School, will represent the school at the ninth annual Girls' State in Dover, June 16-22.

Sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary, Girls' State is intended to provide training in citizenship for girls of high school age and to inform them of the duties, privileges, rights and responsibilities of American citizenship. Girls from schools throughout Delaware will join to organize a senate and house of representatives, conduct legislative sessions and gain first-hand experience.

Waste Fat Drive To Start Here Saturday

See Scouts of Ship Admiral Blandly will launch a waste fat drive here Saturday.

The young seamen will distribute quart cans to local homes and request housewives to save their cooking fat for a month, when the scouts will return for the cans.

The ship has cleaned and prepared about 1200 cans, labelling each "Scrap Fat Drive. Help send a boy to camp."

Proceeds from the campaign will help the ship finance a two-weeks trip for one of its members this summer to Camp Rodney.

NHS Dramatic Students To Stage 3-Act Comedy

A 3-act comedy, "The Seven Sisters" will be staged by the Dramatic Class at the Newark High School on Friday, April 13, at 8:15 p.m. in the school auditorium.

Irene Klahr and Jimmy Draper will take the leads, with Janice Olson and John Spetcher in the chief supporting roles.

Others in the cast will be Peggy Smith, Yvonne Eveland, Joan Barczewski, Annette Ely, Alice Lockard, Phyllis Baker, Richard Hardy, Bill Keene, Robert Yoder and Delbert Sheets.

Registration April 23 For First Graders' Next Term At Newark Schools

Physical examination and registration of youngsters planning to enter the first grade at the Newark schools next September will be held April 23 in the elementary building, Miss Martha Coverdale, school nurse, announced this week.

Hours will be from 10 a.m. to 2:30 p.m.

A complete physical checkup, plus diphtheria and smallpox immunization injections, will be offered each applicant.

To be eligible for entrance next term, children must be six years of age on or before Dec. 31, 1951. Birth certificates must be presented at the registration.

Miss Coverdale pointed out that this is the annual pre-school round-up of prospective first graders. No registration will be held on the first day of school, although there will probably be another registration period in the summer.

Coty Abandons Plan For Perfume Plant; Drops Zone Hearing

Selects Location Elsewhere,
Objections By Residents
Given As Cause

Coty, Inc., has canceled its request for an amendment to the Newark zoning law to permit the erection of a perfume plant here, Charles Long, town secretary-treasurer, announced this week.

No reason was given for the action in the letter of cancellation to Mr. Long from J. Huber Denn, industrial commissioner, Chamber of Commerce, Delaware, Inc., who represented Coty in the negotiations with the town.

However, Dr. Denn said later that Coty had abandoned its plans for a Newark plant and will locate at another site in Delaware.

Harry Dawson, Coty's real estate agent here, said that the firm had dropped its plans for a plant here as a result of the outspoken opposition of residents near the proposed site in the Kells Avenue-Manuel Street section. Strong objections to the plant were voiced by the residents there when Coty's plans first were announced a month ago.

Mr. Dawson said that Coty had discontinued its effort altogether to locate a plant in Newark when the public opposition first developed but that the Chamber of Commerce, Delaware, Inc., had continued negotiations with the town and, through Mr. Denn, had requested the hearing on the amendment.

The hearing, scheduled for tomorrow night, has been called off, Mr. Long said. The zoning amendment would have reclassified portions of the Manuel Street section from residential to industrial. The perfume plant would have employed about 50 persons, according to the initial Coty announcement.

31 Arrests Made By Police Force; Bulk Are Speeding Fines

A total of 32 investigations and 31 arrests kept the Newark police force busy during March, according to Chief William Cunningham's monthly report issued yesterday.

As usual, the majority of the arrests were for speeding with eight motorists being fined for exceeding the 25-mile-in-town limit.

The investigations were follow-ups on a varied array of minor incidents, ranging from automobile accidents to a "car on railroad tracks" and a "man falling from a roof."

The breakdown for the arrests follows: no car muffler, one; disorderly conduct, two; drunken driving, three; passing stop sign, three; passing red light, three; drunkenness, three; failing to stop at a proper command, one; failing to report accident, one; threatening bodily harm, one; passing on right, one; passing yellow light, two; assault and battery, two.

In addition to those already listed, the investigations included two reports concerning disorderly youths, five cases of malicious mischief, one suicide, three reports of peeping toms, three larceny cases, two of which were cleared, one report of a prowler, one train-car accident, one missing person, later returned home, reported trespasser on the country club golf course, later cleared, suspicious cars parked on street, cleared, report of man refusing to pay taxi fare, cleared.

The force also handled 28 phone calls, followed up reports of 32 faulty street lights and provided lodging for five transients.

Three persons were held for the Court of Common Pleas, one for the Family Court, two were sent to the workhouse, and one case was dismissed.

The police car covered 3512 miles.

Wesley Chapel To Hear Guest Minister Sunday

The Sunday school topic at Wesley Chapel this Sunday at 10 a.m. will be "The Beginning of Sin."

The speaker for the 11 a.m. worship service will be the Rev. Maurice Lehman, associate pastor of the East Chester Street Mennonite Church, Lancaster, Pa.

Cancer Crusade To Begin Here Sunday; Aims Are Outlined

Volunteers Workers To Distribute Literature
To Every Home

The annual Cancer Crusade will open in Newark on Sunday, April 8, with an educational campaign aimed at enlisting every family in the fight against the disease.

Volunteers will visit every home with literature designed to acquaint the public with the seven danger signals which, if recognized in time, are the key to saving lives.

Contributions to the American Cancer Society through the Delaware Division mean sharing in the eventual victory and are regarded by many as a fitting memorial to loved ones who have died of the disease. Services offered by the Delaware Division include:

1. Operation of five Cancer Detection Centers in the State of Delaware giving examinations on a voluntary fee basis to women over 35 years of age.

2. Close cooperation with the medical profession, hospitals and State Board of Health and use of their facilities.

3. Financial assistance to needy patients while in the hospital.

4. Post-operative home care where needed, including nursing, drugs, dressings, and many bedside needs.

5. An information service offering advice, free educational literature, and special informative programs for firms, schools, colleges, and fraternal organizations.

Newark's cancer Crusade will be directed by Mrs. Samuel Handloff, with Mrs. J. O. Ely as co-chairman of volunteers, and E. L. Shakespeare as treasurer.

Checks may be drawn to "Cancer" and addressed to Cancer, Newark, Del. Persons wishing to help in the cancer fight are invited to call Mrs. J. Ely.

Bungalow Damaged By Fire Wednesday

Deer Park Garage
Hit By Blaze

Fire of undetermined origin caused considerable damage Wednesday morning to a bungalow occupied by Herbert Brown, 36 New London Avenue.

The blaze, starting in the stairs leading to the attic, burned out the major portion of the attic and contents before it was brought under control. Considerable water and smoke damage was caused in the first floor living quarters.

Fire Chief Elmer Ellison estimated the damage at around $5,000.

A blaze broke out Tuesday night in a garage in the rear of the Deer Park Hotel, damaging some furniture stored there. The frame structure, owned by the Deer Park and abutting the Fader Motor Company, contained no cars when the fire started. Chief Ellison said the cause had not been determined. He estimated the damage at around $1,000.

Job Parley For NHS Students, April 19

Representatives of private industry in the Newark and Wilmington areas will sit down with senior commercial students at the Newark High School on April 19 to discuss just what industry and business expects from young graduates seeking a job.

The round-table conference will start at 10:40 a.m. in the auditorium. Representatives of business and plant ownership, worker and supervisor groups will be on hand to give the students some practical advice on how to get and hold a job. Among them will be recent graduates of the Newark High School, who will describe some of the problems they faced after graduation.

Moderator for the talks will be William Penrose, dean of the school of education at the University of Delaware and chairman of education for the Newark Chamber of Commerce.

Following the conference, the visitors will be conducted on a tour of the school and will be served lunch in the school cafeteria.

Tyre Avenue Residents Score Smoke Nuisance

Complaints against smoke nuisance created by steam engines using the Pennsylvania's Pomeroy track were made this week by the residents of Tyre Avenue.

A petition, signed by almost the entire neighborhood, urged the Town Council to do something to relieve the situation.

Councilman Norman Battersby promised to take the matter up immediately with railroad authorities. Mr. Battersby, who is an employee of the railroad, seemed confident the condition would be corrected promptly.

To Entertain Girl Scout Troop Leaders

Troop leaders of the Newark District Girl Scout Council will be entertained at a buffet supper Monday, April 9, at 6:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Allan Colburn, 48 Winslow Road.

Final Draft Of Charter Okayed By Council; Boundaries Are Set

Proposed Town Limits Practically Same As Those First
Suggested Two Months Ago; Elliott Heights
Included; New Opposition Seen

A final draft of Newark's proposed new charter, containing the disputed provisions for extending the town boundaries, was approved at the first April meeting of the Town Council on Thursday night.

The lawmakers ordered copies of the draft printed and sent to Dover to fill in the skeleton bill already on the legislative agenda.

As finally okayed, the projected new boundaries, extending the town limits nearly a mile in all directions, are substantially the same as first proposed here two months ago and subjected to intense debate ever since.

Elliott Heights, the suburban area north of town, where residents are split over the annexation issue, would be included in the town. Nottingham Manor and Lumbrook, which have approved annexation, would also be incorporated.

The remainder of the charter draft, except for minor changes, is the same as outlined to the public at a recent mass hearing. Printed copies of the revised drafts are expected to be available in limited numbers at the Council offices after the bill is sent to Dover.

It was disclosed that opposition to the proposed boundaries may be developing in new quarters. Mayor Johnson and Councilman Carl S. Rankin said that the Pennsylvania Railroad, the University of Delaware, and the Chrysler Corporation, all of which own property that would be incorporated in the town, may register objections at Dover.

The railroad, they said, is concerned about how its land along its right of way south of the present town limits would be zoned. Chrysler, they added, may be concerned about the town tax levy.

Ralph Brosius, manager of the Chrysler parts depot, who was present at the session, confirmed the latter statement. He added that as far as he knew Chrysler had never been approached by town authorities on the question of the boundary extension.

The lawmakers generally expressed the opinion that the future of this entire area is bound up in the new charter. They pointed out that if the boundaries are not extended a hedge-podge of housing settlements without sanitary sewer connections could spring up, threatening the town's underground water supply with contamination.

Newark's future traffic problems in connection with the proposed Chrysler plant are also a factor.

2 Are Opposed For Legion Commander

Slate Picked For Annual
Post Election

Dr. Wallace Johnson, mayor of Newark, and Robert Pinlick, proprietor of Pinlick's Shoe Store, are opposed for commander of the J. A. O'Daniel Post, No. 10, American Legion, in the group's annual election April 24.

Mr. Pinlick is also running without opposition for the post of first vice-commander.

Contests have also developed for the posts of Second Vice-Commander and Sergeant-At-Arms. Bidding for the former are Roy Reed, John Fisher and W. O. White. Candidates for the latter are Harry Truitt and Robert Slack.

The remainder of the slate follows: Dr. John R. Downes, finance; the Rev. James Bishop, chaplain; A. E. Tomhave, historian; Ford McBerly and Conrad K. D. Lewis, trustee; and Herman Handloff, executive.

NHS To Hear China Native Discuss Far East Problems

Dr. No-Yong Park, writer and lecturer on Far Eastern affairs, will speak at an assembly April 13 at 8:45 a.m. at the Newark High School.

Born and reared in Manchuria, Dr. No-Yong Park received his oriental education in China, Japan and Korea and his occidental training in Europe and America. In this country, he did his undergraduate work at the University of Minnesota and post graduate at Harvard University.

He has made Far Eastern problems his life study.

Proposal For Wider Recreation Program Aired By Association

Mimeographed copies of the recommendations for an expanded community recreation program based on a recent survey of Newark were distributed at the annual election meeting of the Newark Recreation Association Tuesday evening at the New Century Club.

The eight-day study of Newark's facilities and needs was conducted during February by Weaver W. Pangburn of the F. Ellwood Allen Association, recreation specialists, of New York City and sponsored by the Soroptimist Club of Newark.

Based on a study of present facilities and the planned expansion of the town as well as a sampling of public opinion, the recommendations call for a reorganization of the Association's Board of Directors to include representatives of the School Board and Town Council, eventual creation of a public recreation commission; expanded use of present facilities, especially those of the public schools; purchase of land for a park and playgrounds while still available.

Additional copies of the detailed recommendations may be obtained at the office of the Council of Newark by any interested persons. A summary of the recommendations follows:

Members of the New London Presbyterian Church Loyal Workers' Guild were guests of the Missionary Society of the New London Church at a (Sandy) brush demonstration at the manse on April 2.

Red Cross first aid classes started April 2 at Londenberg Hall. Meetings are once a week for six weeks at 7:30 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. George Kalb visited the Comlys over the weekend, and brought Karen back from her vacation in Hamilton Square. Mr. John Kalb had joined Mrs. John Kalb and Kurt at the Rihm home on Long Island for the weekend, and both parties joined forces for the homecoming party from Trenton.

Don't forget the Home and School League meeting Tuesday, the 10th, at Southbank School.

The road meeting of the Township Commissioners, Londen-Britain Township, will meet April 9 at the William Nichol home, 8 p.m.

We understand that the card parties held the last Thursday of every month at Londenberg Hall for the Hall Fund, continue as enjoyable as ever.

George F. Holton sold his farm of 141 acres to Dale and Bill Nichol this past week. He tells us that the tenant house was retained, and that his son Gilbert plans to remodel the tenant house for his own home, subsequent to his coming marriage.

Mr. Holton states that he based his decision to sell his farm on the fact that a very bad fracture of one of his legs, suffered some thirteen years ago, has made the farming occupation a most difficult one for him to pursue. He plans upon remaining in the community, and has kept a portion of land next to the home of his daughter, Mrs. Masel Siple, where he plans to erect a home. Mr. Holton does not plan to retire completely, but does not have any definite plans at the moment beyond those stated.

Mrs. Richard Taylor is confined to the Memorial Hospital in Wilmington. Easter weekend brought Lt. Cliff Owen "home" to the Sanfords for a happy reunion. Cliff has been transferred to the Technical Service Unit, and starting April 9, he will be at Camp Dietrich, Frederick, Maryland. Everyone in the community felt very badly indeed to learn that the Hum family had the misfortune to have their home badly damaged by fire March 27. Opinions as to the origin of the fire are varied. Suffice it to say that there is no roof or attic, and parts of the second floor are damaged. What the fire didn't take care of, the water did, and the windows are a sad spectacle. Ann Hixon did a bit of phoning, and found available for "clean-up detail" the next day, Anna Dehoy, Ruth Weaver, Martha Carlin, Marie Thomas, The Hums, Mary and Charlie, and Winnie Filippi, were in on the procedure, and after some vigorous shoveling out of burned material, the place began to look redeemable. The ladies spent many hours, and Janet Krause prepared a complete dinner for the Filippis and the Hums, which they found waiting at the Filippi home at 6 p.m. The ironing for the week was taken care of by Dorothy Akerman, and the Filippis are acting as host and hostess to the Hums until their own home is made habitable again.

Farming Income Of State Remains Firm Despite U.S. Decline

8 Percent Drop In National Average Reported.

In spite of rising prices during the last half of 1950, United States farmers realized eight per cent less income from farming in 1950 than in 1949. Delaware farmers fared slightly better than those in surrounding states, according to W. T. McAllister, extension marketing specialist, University of Delaware. Compared with 1949, records showed practically no decline in receipts from farm marketing in Delaware.

Maryland had a two percent decline, New Jersey—four percent, Pennsylvania, a five percent decline. Maine had the heaviest loss—16 percent, while North Carolina reported an 11 percent gain.

This brings farmers' realized net income 27 percent below the 1947 peak. In terms of purchasing power, farm incomes are 30 percent below this peak.

Higher production costs were the principal reasons for the 1950 drop.

Estimated income per person on farms for 1950, was $804 compared to $816 in 1949. For non-farm persons it was $1546 in 1950; $1494 in 1949. In comparing "dollar and cent" changes of the two years, it is important to consider the devaluation of the dollar that took place in the last half of 1950, too, said McAllister.

Chemical Society To Hear

Papers Of U. of D. Staffers

The program of the 119th national meeting of the American Chemical Society, held in Boston this week, includes two research reports by members of the Department of Chemistry at the University of Delaware. Tuesday Dr. Glenn S. Skinner and Dr.

Richard DeV. Huber will discuss "Alkyl-Carboxyethylketones and Related Barbituric Acid Derivatives." These substances, first prepared at the Newark laboratories, are of considerable interest as possible sleep-producing drugs.

On Thursday Dr. William A. Mosher and Dr. James L. Jezl will present "The Oxidation of Some Saturated Hydrocarbons with Chromic Acid." The results to be discussed were obtained by subjecting gasoline-related compounds to chemical action similar to that of burning but much less drastic in nature. This has led to knowledge of the structures in molecules most likely to breakdown under chemical action.

New 'Nash Healey' Sports Car

Nash Motors' new Nash Healey 2-passenger sports car features European sports car styling. Its distinctive front end appearance is achieved by clean functional design with broad low hood and car-long horizontal body lines flowing gracefully from front to rear. The front grille follows the design of the familiar Nash "Airfly" chrome barred racing air scoop. Powered by the equally new "Dual Jetfire" Ambassador engine, it has an estimated speed of 125 mph. Production of the new car will be limited, according to Nash Motors. The Nash Healey represents the combined skills of Nash Motors, U.S.A., and the Donald Healey Company of Warwick, England.

Capitol Trail News

Mrs. James H. Bishop, Correspondent
Kirkwood Highway
Phone 6318

Our highway has been the scene of many accidents lately that they are getting to be almost commonplace. In fact, some of the officials of White Clay Cemetery Association are justifiably worried about the problem of repairs to the Cemetery fence which was badly damaged by two accidents on the same day, Thursday, Mar. 29.

A section of the iron fence was knocked down about 9 a.m. when a truck skidded off the highway. Then at 4:30 p.m. a car, carrying a load of floral arrangements for the John B. Lynch funeral, skidded and overturned at the same spot.

A car operated by Mrs. Raymond Lynch, 3010 Cross Roads, approaching from the direction of Newark, narrowly escaped being hit. Mrs. John B. Lynch, Polly Drummond Road, mother of Officer Lynch of the Newark Police Force, was a passenger in Mrs. Lynch's car. She immediately contacted her son by phoning from the residence of the Rev. James Bishop, Capitol Trail. Officer Lynch promptly notified the state police. The Newark ambulance was dispatched to the scene but was not needed. The driver, Harry A. Price Jr., of Wilmington, was unhurt.

Price had a miraculous escape, according to Mrs. Lynch. The truck, which skidded end-over-end three times, coming to a halt upside down, facing in the opposite direction. Two wrecking cars were required to right the badly damaged funeral truck.

Sunday morning church-goers noted that one side of the bridge over the creek near the highway, on Possum Park Road, had been damaged sometime during the night previous. No report on the accident is available at present.

The Newark fire department was called out on Monday, March 26, to put out a grass fire that had gotten out of bounds in the section between White Clay Cemetery and Possum Park Road.

Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Richards of Capitol Trail, motored to Newtown Square, Pa., on Sunday to visit Mrs. Richards' sister, Mrs. Arnold Ewing. Mr. and Mrs. Ewing held open house in celebration of their 50th wedding anniversary.

Miss Hazel Johnston, Possum Park Road, spent Thursday and Friday of last week in Atlantic City, N.J.

Mr. and Mrs. William G. Wimmer, Laurel Avenue, Roseville Park, motored to New York City last Sunday.

Carl Butterworth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Butterworth, Roseville Park, spent last weekend with a group of scouts at Camp Rodney.

White Clay Creek Presbyterian Church, Ralph Lindell, chairman of ushers, announces the following schedule for the month of April: April 8, Herbert Brown, Raymond Lindell; April 15, Norma Brown, John Murray; April 23, Clarence Higgins, Ralph Lindell; April 30, Willard Johnston, Richard Gifford.

Next Sunday, April 8, at the 11 a.m. church service, the pastor will bring the second in a series of messages on the great doctrines of the church, "The Christ Who Introduces Us To God."

About the only things not having a special week named for them are salmon, oak, dandruff and fallen arches.

Another month in 1951 arrived last Sunday. Why April 1 is called April Fool's Day or All Fool's Day is still a mystery and when the practice of playing pranks was started is also unknown. April days are filled with gentle showers, soft breezes, warm sunshine and the glad songs of spring birds.

The White Oak 4-H Clubbers heard a talk about farming in Germany and how it differs from that in the United States last Thursday night. The talk was by George Stinning of Frankfurt, Germany, an exchange student in this country. He was a guest of W. Lewis Phipps, Jr., a member.

Of the four winners in the hybrid corn demonstration contest, three, Joseph Mitchell, Raymond Lamborn, and James L. Derickson, Jr., were White Oaks, Jimmy Derickson took of their recent trip to Baltimore to see fertilizer and seed processing plants as the guests of the Southern States Cooperative.

The club will contribute produce to the annual Flower Market next month. Jane Walton, Anne Beyerlein and David Woodward are the committee. Rural Life Sunday will be observed April 29 with James Brackin, Charlotte Klair, and Dorothy Pierson in charge of arrangements. Raymond Lamborn reported on the tractor maintenance school and showed motion pictures on "Friend or Foe," a fire prevention film. Barbara Whiteham, publicity chairman, announced the publicity contest from March 1 to June 31. John Williams told of the dairy project meeting. Three new members were introduced: Neal Ramey, Robert Fleming, and Lamar E. Brox. Bernice Dobrick was hostess to the club and Joseph Pierson presided. Mrs. Herbert W. Pierson is club leader.

Several members of the Winodanis Home Demonstration Club attended a training school last week at the home of Mrs. Joseph Mitchell, Woodside Farms. Waverly Club met last Wednesday with Mrs. John Denmon and Miss Mary K. Mitchell. The program was on "Alaska." Mrs. Joseph Mitchell reviewed several chapters from the book "My Cap and My Cape." The statehood of Alaska was discussed. Conclusions and its various beauties were mentioned by Mrs. Paul Mitchell. The Alaska Highway was the topic of an article by Mrs. Granville Eastburn. Family night will be celebrated April 11 in the Hockessin Friends Meeting House. There will be a covered dish supper served at 6 p.m. in charge of Mrs. Lewis Palmer. The program will be planned by Mrs. G. Eastburn. Members and their families will attend.

Two new homes are being built along the Limestone Road near Milltown. The McDowell home is nearing completion. The Harold Pierce home is just being roofed.

Fred Amand is Intermittent and Calvin Ball, Harold Wivel, Richard Porter, and Clarence Aiken are end men. Miss Connie Sabine and Donald Hicks are soloists. Bill Barrels and Alex Jarrell, Jr. will give a duet with guitar accompaniment. Harold Wivel and Jane Frederick will have saxophone solos. Miss Eleanor Woodward and Miss Margaret Woodward will have a piano and an accordion duet. A male quartet consisting of Henry Gass, William Elliott, the Rev. George Jamieson, and Donald Hicks will sing. Mrs. W. H. Naudain is the director. Others in the cast are: Mrs. Calvin Ball, Mrs. W. H. Naudain, Mrs. Marvin Klair, Mrs. Henry Gass, Mrs. G. T. Jamieson, Mrs. Richard Porter, Mrs. Paul Peach, Miss Rebecca Jarrell, Mrs. Alex Jarrell, Jr., Mrs. William Barrels, Mrs. Clarence Aiken, Mrs. Harold Wivel, Edgar Walker, and Tommy Jarrell.

Harmony Grange will sponsor a rummage sale April 13 on Eighth Street in Wilmington. Mrs. Paul Peach is chairman.

A dramatization called "The Newness of Life" was given by the following: The Rev. and Mrs. James H. Bishop, Mr. and Mrs. W. Paul Peach, Mrs. Sara P. Evans, and Clarence Aiken on Monday evening at the meeting of Harmony Grange.

At the breakfast in Hollywood show last Friday night for New Castle County Pomona Grange, Mrs. Leslie Derickson won the orchid for being the oldest mother present. Mrs. Harvey Ball and Miss Annie Derickson were prize winners for being members of grange the longest. Several other Harmony members captured prizes. The male quartet won first prize in the county.

Harmony Rural School
Pre-school children of this district will be examined April 13 at 9:45 a.m. by Dr. Edward F. Gliva, deputy state health officer director.

Corner Ketch
Wa Wa Tribe No. 43 had a class adoption last week with delegates from seven tribes in attendance, including state officers. The degree work was presented by Little Elk Tribe from Cherry Hill, Md.

Philip Dempsey and Freddy Lovess have been sick with the measles.

Pleasant Hill
Miss Helen Samendinger and Herman Samendinger of Paper Mill Road, were visitors on Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Pennington.

Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Buckingham were prize winners at the "Breakfast in Hollywood Show" Friday evening at Krebs Schools for being the couple married the longest. They had been wedded 55 years.

Ebenezer Methodist Church
Dr. and Mrs. Charles Johannaber, missionaries to China for 20 years, Mar. 15, 1929; Apr. 13 will be the guest speakers here on Sunday morning. Mrs. Johannaber will speak at the Sunday school period and will exhibit Chinese handicraft. Dr. Johannaber will preach at 11 a.m. on the theme, "The Chinese Under Communist Control."

The official board is planning a supper for April 21 at 4 p.m. Booster Circle No. 3 will sponsor a bake sale tomorrow starting at 3 p.m. in front of Jackson's Hardware Store in Newark.

The MYF of Ebenezer Methodist Church will meet Sunday evening at 7:30 at the home of Leonard Nelson.

The WSCS elected officers for the coming year at the monthly meeting Mar. 29 as follows: Mrs. Louise H. Dempsey, president; Mrs. Robert Greenplate, vice president succeeding Mrs. Albert Humphreys who has moved to West Chester, Pa.; Miss Catherine Dempsey, secretary; Mrs. Alexander Jarrell, treasurer; Mrs. Granplate, program chairman. The society is making a patchwork quilt.

Red Clay Creek Presbyterian Church
This old church was filled to capacity Sunday evening for the presentation of a sacred choral service given by the Princeton Theological Seminary choir.

The Rev. Clarence S. Hoffman, pastor of Ebenezer Presbyterian Church, will speak on "Korea, Past and Present," at the Men's Night program this program is a community wide project. There will be films on baseball highlights. Special music will be given.

Barnes Youth Camp
Plans 10-Week Season
Camp Barnes, the boys camp conducted in Sussex County by the Delaware Association of Chiefs of Police, will be open from June 11 to Aug. 18. The 10-week period will be featured by the visit of Gov. Elbert N. Carvel on Sunday, July 15 for Governor's Day.

Attendance will be divided into five periods of two weeks. Corp. Hugh T. Collins of the state police will be camp director.

Warfarin, a newly discovered rat killer, does not contain any well-known ingredient, but is a single chemical in itself. It kills rats by reducing the clotting ability of the blood, and causing them to die from internal bleeding.

Late Peach Sport Found In University Orchards

Dr. Chester V. Hitz, horticulturist on the Delaware Agricultural Experiment Station staff, reports that a late ripening sport of Elberta peach has been found in the University orchards. The sport limb was first noticed in 1949 because of its late ripening. In 1950, Hitz found that this limb blossomed a week to ten days later than the rest of the trees.

According to Dr. Hitz, this is the latest blooming variety ever observed. The fruit of the sport is of excellent quality, but its late blooming and ripening characteristics will make it valuable in a breeding program. If by breeding lateness and high quality can be combined, in one variety, it will help Delaware peach growers avoid the late spring frosts which kill blossoms on present varieties.

Council Meeting

task plan also came in for considerable discussion. Various solutions for handling the expected morning and evening commuter rush when the plant goes into production have run into opposition, it was disclosed.

Town Engineer Rankin has proposed a route starting from Capitol Trail and skirting the eastern and southern edges of town, running through the University of Delaware experimental farm, to route 296 just opposite the proposed tank plant.

This would be the most logical route, Mr. Rankin said, but he pointed out that university authorities are opposed to granting rights of way through their property.

Another proposal, made by Thomas Foster, spokesman for the Chamber of Commerce, would take the by-pass just south of the Pennsylvania Railroad to the overhead bridge at the end of South College Avenue. This, it was pointed out, would make an awkward junction with the highway and could lead to traffic bottlenecks.

Mr. Foster, spokesman for the Chamber, outlined another possible route connecting with 296 beyond the university property. Mr. Rankin said this was not practical.

The discussion wound up with Mayor Wallace Johnson promising to continue negotiations with the university in an effort to reach a solution.

Finding alternate routes to the plant to relieve pressure on town streets is an urgent problem, the lawmakers believe. They pointed out that Main Street, the town's only through thoroughfare, is already overtaxed during the morning and evening rush hours. They added that estimated employment at the tank plant at peak production ranges from 4,000 to 7,500 workers.

The Council also gave final approval to two ordinances, one governing the use and parking of automobile trailers within the town and second defining the word "alteration" in the zoning law.

The latter makes a building permit unnecessary for home repairs totaling less than $300.

The trailer ordinance, in effect, limits the parking of trailers to six weeks within the town limits and requires they meet sanitary standards, including proper sewage disposal. The occupant is required to secure a permit from the Council.

The law also prevents the growth of trailer camps here by forbidding more than one trailer per residential lot. Existing trailers are not affected, although the owner must secure a permit.

Examinations will be held soon for applicants to the police force. Chief William Cunningham has requested the hiring of additional officers and the Police Commission, including Councilman William Coverdale, Rankin and Frank Durnall, will conduct the tests.

of the entire report is to be printed and given town-wide distribution at a later date.

The financial report submitted by Michael A. Kubicek, treasurer, listed receipts for the 1950-51 fiscal year of $1714.00, including returns of $1563.34 from the 1950 fund drive. Disbursements totaled $3684.20, which included a total of $1060.00 in salaries to 12 part-time employees. Cash on hand on March 31, 1951, was $260.07.

New directors elected at Tuesday night's meeting are Herman Handloff, Daniel Harvey, and John Chalmers. They replace Michael A. Kubicek and T. D. Smith, whose terms have expired, and D. Kenneth Steers, president of the Association, who filled the unexpired term of Mrs. Robert Lewis. Hold-over directors are: Mrs. A. P. Colburn, Miss Ann Chalmers, "Whitey" Burnham, Harry Rawstrom, Thomas Foster, and Paul Dolan.

Officers elected from among the board of directors are: President, Paul Dolan; vice-president, Ann Chalmers; Secretary, Mrs. A. P. Colburn; treasurer, A. H. Burnham.

LITTLE THINGS

TELEVISION - RADIO - HOLLYWOOD

By GEORGE LILLEY

NEW YORK, N. Y.—In ceremonies at Valley Forge, Pa., General Omar N. Bradley has presented on behalf of "Cavalcade of America" one of the highest honors yet bestowed upon a broadcast—first place for radio programs in the 1950 Freedom Foundation Awards. In 1949, when the first annual awards were made, the Du Pont dramatic program also won one of the top honors for best exemplifying the Foundation's credo of the American Way of Life. A jury consisting of State Supreme Court Justices and officers of American patriotic societies, select Freedom Foundation winners.

Gene Tierney

Richard Widmark

Joan Fontaine

In its 16th year, "Cavalcade of America" (Tuesday nights, NBC) deals with people, little known as often as not, who have made significant contributions to the growth of America. Scripts are authentically written in an idiom of vivid reality and the stars who perform them are virtually a "who's who" of Broadway and Hollywood. Such names as Helen Hayes, Joan Fontaine, Walter Hampden, Gene Tierney, Richard Widmark, Charles Laughton, Irene Dunne, are among the frequent "Cavalcade" guests.

PORTIA'S LIFE

Like an old friend, a good radio serial wears well. Among the best wearers: "Portia Faces Life," a show that over the last 11 years invariably has rated among the top 3 in the popularity charts. "Portia" (daytime, NBC) is a brilliant lawyer who would rather be a contented housewife. Invariably she is far from her happy goal. She has faced widowhood, support of a young son, adjustments of a new marriage, temporary loss of her second husband (anemia), the necessity of defending him in a murder trial, among other domestic trials. Smart, veteran actress Lucille Ball has played "Portia" since the beginning. Wednesdays the program offers a special feature, "Woman of the Week"—human interest interviews with women in the news selected by the show's star.

2nd MRS. BURTON'S 5th

"The Second Mrs. Burton," CBS daytime serial, is celebrating its fifth anniversary—one of radio's more pleasant domestic dramas. "Terry Burton," as the second wife of "Stan Burton," New England storekeeper and dabbler in politics, has her homey problems—especially her mother-in-law—but, generally speaking, this is one of radio's most moderate, lovable characters. Patsy Campbell, a quiet, informal ex-Chicagoan who likes farm cooking and corn collecting, plays the role of "Terry." Dwight Weist, who gained fame as the March of Time voice of Hitler, Churchill, Roosevelt, Wendell Wilkie and others, is "Stan." Wednesdays an interview series, "Family Counselor," presenting people of interest to housewives, is part of the program.

Queries On Social Security Answered

Address all Queries to Social Security Administration, Customs House, 6th & King Sts., Wilmington, Delaware.

Q. If working at the age of 65 or over, do I still pay the social security insurance tax?

A. The tax is paid on wages for employment covered by the Social Security Act regardless of age.

Q. My husband left me in September of this year and I have no word from him since. If I furnish you with his name and social security number, would you give me his present place of employment and his home address?

A. The records of the Social Security Administration are confidential and have been designed solely to insure proper identification of a wage earner's account and to assist in adjudicating his claim. Confidential information from the records of the administration cannot be furnished.

Q. My husband is 70 years of age. Although he is still working, he has made application for social security to be paid when he is no longer able to work. On his application he stated he had a wife who was living and was 68 years of age. Should I file an application now or wait until he stops working?

A. You may take either course of action. No benefits will be payable, however, until your husband stops working or earns no more than $14.99 in a month in a job covered by Social Security. Call at the Social Security Administration field office where your husband filed his application. They will tell you whether it is in your interest to use an application now.

Q. What types of jobs are covered by social security? Does the number of employees an employer has make any difference?

A. Any employer of one or more employees engaged in the usual type of commercial or industrial business is "covered" by the Social Security Act. Examples of "covered" jobs, regardless of the number of employees in the employer's establishment, are jobs in factories, mills, mines, offices, stores, banks, garages, hotels, restaurants, beauty parlor and the like. Those not "covered" by the act are in general, jobs in agriculture, domestic service in private homes, government service and work in religious, charitable and certain other non-profit organizations. The self-employed also are not "covered."

Q. My wife has been working in employment covered by the Social Security law. If she should die would I be entitled to monthly benefits?

A. The law does not provide for payment of monthly benefits to a husband based on his wife's wage record. However, it does provide that if a wife is fully or currently insured and dies, the husband would be entitled to a lump sum benefit payment based on the wife's wage record provided he was living with her at the time of her death.

Q. How can I secure a statement of the wages credited to my social security account?

A. You should request any office of the Social Security Administration to furnish you with our post card Form OAR-7094. If you complete and mail this card to the address given thereon, you will receive a statement of the wages credited to your social security account. We suggest that you secure such a statement once each year.

Q. I have been working under social security for the past five years. I have just taken a position which is not covered by Social Security. Is there any way that I can continue payments into the Social Security Fund until I become fully insured?

A. No. Under the present law there is no provision for voluntary contributions to the Social Security Fund. However, if in the future you return to a job covered by Social Security, the wages you then earn will be credited to your same account and will continue to build up your record toward a fully insured status.

Q. My wife and I are receiving Old-Age Insurance payments. I now have an opportunity to open a small business of my own. Will we continue to receive our payments?

A. You will continue to receive your Old-Age Insurance payments. Payments are suspended only if you work in employment covered by the Social Security Act and earn more than $14.99 per month. Self-employed are not covered by the act.

Q. After reaching 65 and qualifying for social security benefits, can a beneficiary get a job and receive benefits at the same time?

A. If you become entitled to benefits, no benefits are payable for any month in which you earn more than $14.99 in a job covered by social security. However, if you work in a job not covered by social security (for example, farm employment, government employment, domestic work, self-employment), you may still receive your benefits, regardless of the amount you earned. You should check with the Social Security Administration office where you file your claim to determine if the job is covered by the Social Security Law.

Safety Hints

"A dead person can't accept the apology of a discourteous driver." That grim reminder was given recently by Robert Kennedy, vice-president for Public Safety of the Delaware Safety Council.

"Excessive speed is the worst form of rudeness on the road, because it is fertile ground that breeds other discourteous acts," said Mr. Kennedy. "When a car is being driven too fast, proper passing procedure is likely to be sacrificed. Driving on the wrong side of the road may result from lack of control caused by speeding. Other violations can also be traced to the speeding source."

"More than 5,000 persons sped to their death in traffic accidents last year, according to the National Safety Council. Unless strong steps are taken, the history of highway deaths will be repeating itself again this year. That is why emphasis is being placed on attacking this toll right where it begins. These roots are the discourteous driving habits of the individual."

"There may be a hairline of distinction between discourteous driving and actual violation of the laws, Mr. Kennedy said, "but in most fatal accidents, the person best qualified to tell about it has been killed."

"The driver who has faulty lights or fails to dim them at night is guilty of a discourtesy that may never be detected as a violation after a fatal collision. More obvious discourtesies including driving on the wrong side of the road, improper passing, disregarding an officer or traffic control device, ignoring the right-of-way, and driving under the influence of alcohol."

"Proving a violation, as far as safety is concerned, is nowhere near as important as preventing them. Courtesy on the highway at all times is the safe way."

The shortest distance between two points is a straight line but a woman doesn't believe it when she is repeating gossip.

State Princess

Alice Patricia Martin

This is Delaware's Cherry Blossom Princess, 20-year-old junior at the University of Delaware, who will represent the State at the twelfth annual Cherry Blossom Festival in Washington, D. C., April 4 to 8.

Miss Alice Patricia Martin is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph W. Martin of the Parklyn Apartments, Elsmere. She was chosen by ballot from among 10 other coeds by the students at the university.

A five-day round of festivities has been scheduled for her by the Delaware State Society, of which U. S. Rep. J. Caleb Boggs is president. Arrangements have been made for Delaware's princess to meet high government officials during her Capitol visit.

Farm Crop Turnover Sets All-Time Mark

Farmers in the six-state operating territory of South States Cooperative used their organization more than ever before during the first six months of the 1950-'51 fiscal year, according to the cooperative's mid-year report just issued.

The report was prepared for presentation at annual regional local boards held throughout the territory. Total service volume for the cooperative and its affiliates, is reported as $62,491,929, as compared with $51,954,566 for the same six months for the previous year.

Tonnage volume, the true measure of a cooperative's service to its members, was also at an all-time high. Despite a general decline in feed usage due to unfavorable feeding ratios, Southern States feed volume was up over seven percent for the period. Feed volume for the period totaled over 300,000 tons.

Fertilizer volume increased nearly eight percent in the face of shortages in raw materials. Total fertilizer volume for the six month period was approximately 100,000 tons.

The mid-year report also stated that seed volume was up, petroleum galonage showed a 26.24 percent increase and miscellaneous farm supply volume increased over 70 percent.

PERKINS-DOYLE

NUPTIALS SATURDAY

The wedding of Miss Barbara Ann Perkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Percy H. Perkins, of Newark, and Mr. John J. Doyle, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Doyle, of Newark, took place at ten o'clock Saturday, March 31st, with nuptial mass in St. John the Baptist R. C. Church, by the Rev. Francis J. Connelly officiating.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore an eighteenth century gown of champagne satin, featuring a yoke trimmed with sequins and seed pearls. She wore a finger ring set of imported platinum and with headpiece. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses, sweet peas and orchids.

Miss Sara Scarborough, aunt of the bride, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Charles Wagner, and Miss Florence Swadlow. Miss Betsy Ann Greig, cousin of the bride, was junior bridesmaid.

Mr. Charles Wagner, cousin of the groom, was best man. Ushers were Mr. Kenneth Beers, Mr. Graham Lomax, Mr. William Harrington and Mr. Robert Daily.

Wedding music was played by Mr. John Stephens of Elkton, Maryland. Miss Scarborough wore a lavender marquisette gown over taffeta with a matching taffeta jacket while the bridesmaids wore similar gowns in pale green and the junior bridesmaid wore yellow of the same design. They wore sweetheart headpieces to match their gowns. The junior bridesmaid wore a small hat of yellow horsehair. All the attendants wore lace mitts, and carried old fashioned bouquets of red peonies and roses to match their gowns.

After a reception at the Newark Century Club, the couple left for a wedding trip in the Poconos. Upon their return they will reside at 73 East Delaware Avenue, Newark.

Playing will start at 8:15 p.m.

On this Friday evening at the regular meeting the April birthdays will be celebrated.

"Dear Peggy: I am very much pleased with my new spring suit. It's a perfect fit, and I like the material and styling so much. I'm sure I'm going to get much enjoyment from it. Thanks a lot for thinking of me. Enclosed please find check."

"I'm still interested in a couple of cottons for work. I'm not desperate enough for ordinary ones, but I'd like some like the turquoise one and the calico one I bought last year. I'll be wearing some I bought from you in 1947 again too. (Oh, those Peggy Cronin fashions!)"

"Thanks again 'B. B.'"

Note—This is from a valued customer who moved from Newark to Wilmington but who still comes back!

Cottons! Cottons! Cottons! Our shop is bursting with new cottons. Bought early to assure low prices. Our $9 and $11 cottons are sensational! They're going two or three to a customer... so come shopping... park in the parking lot... and take your own sweet time!

News! In our Elkton Shop we're staging a "Re-organization Sale," beginning Friday of this week. Take a drive over it's the "Victory Shop" on North Street, just as you enter town.

A visitor from New York was in Saturday for more Deala Bras... said she had bought two in the early fall and just loved 'em! They're really fine—all nylon slipper satin, bound with nylon ribbon and easy, comfortable to wear, giving a natural uplift! Do try one!

Do you need a Topper—or Spring Coat? Our entire stock is "specially priced" or reduced for clearance. For the teenager, see our check all-wool toppers, on sale at $7.

Watch this column for our sale announcement. An unusual event is being planned!

And now, may we thank each and every one of you for your faithful "at home" shopping—and assure you that our efforts are being redoubled to help you.

Former Resident Dies In

Washington, D.C., March 29

Miss Florence E. Cook, former resident of Newark and Wilmington, after a brief illness died last Thursday in Washington, D.C.

The daughters of the late Dr. and Mrs. Glenn Cook, Miss Cook was a native of Wilmington, and for a number of years she and her sister, Miss Ida Cook, lived here with George L. Medill and family on South College Avenue.

In addition to Miss Ida Cook, of Washington, D.C., another sister, Mrs. George L. Medill, of York, Pa., survives.

Services were held in Washington on Friday. Interment was Saturday in the Wilmington and Brandywine Cemetery.

Bankers To Sponsor Farm Credit Clinic

U. of D. Agriculture School Cooperating

The third annual Bankers' Agricultural Credit Clinic will be held at the University of Delaware, Friday, April 13, announced R. O. Bauman, chairman of the department of agricultural economics at the University. The clinic is held by the Delaware Bankers' Association in cooperation with the School of Agriculture, said Bauman.

The program is designed for men who are on the "firing line" of agricultural lending, including bank directors and officers. Farmers and bankers are scheduled to speak at the one-day session.

A farm leader will tell the bankers "What a Farmer Expects From His Bank." Bankers will take part in a panel discussion on actual case studies of loans common in Delaware.

Robert P. Altman, president of the bankers' association; Edward B. Green, chairman of the association's agricultural committee; and Gilbert B. Moyer, secretary of the association; will address the group.

President John A. Perkins, University of Delaware; and George M. Worrlow, director of the Agricultural Experiment Station and the Agricultural Extension Service, will welcome the bankers.

In the afternoon the group will go on a tour of the University Farm—the new dairy barn and herd, and the Delaware Artificial Breeders' Ass'n. bull stud. Delmar J. Young, extension dairyman, will explain the operation of the artificial insemination program in Delaware.

Rural Coop Essay Contest Underway

Open To Youths In 6 States $20,000 In Prizes

One month remains for boys and girls under 18 years of age in Virginia, West Virginia, Maryland, Kentucky, Delaware and Northeastern Tennessee to enter the Southern States $20,000 Essay Contest. The contest is scheduled to end April 30.

First prize in the contest is a $2,000 college scholarship to an agricultural college in any of the six states.

The essay contest was designed to promote the development and improvement of pasture and forage crops in the six states named and is, in fact, a further promotion of the green pasture programs already working in the states comprising the operating territory of Southern States Cooperative.

Contestants will write on the subject, "What a Balanced Pasture Program Will Mean To My Farm." The essays are expected to emphasize the practical application of the principles of pasture development in terms of the writer's own home farm.

Here is a list of prizes which will be given in addition to the college scholarship award: in each county of the six states first prize will be a fifty dollar savings bond; second prize will be a twenty-five dollar savings bond. Contestants will be held in each county only if a minimum of twenty contestants enter.

The first place winners in each county will be eligible for the top state award of a three hundred dollar savings bond, second prize in the state contests will be one hundred fifty dollars in savings bonds and third prize, fifty dollars in savings bonds.

The top winners in the six states will compete for the grand prize.

Complete rules of the contest are available from high school principals, vocational teachers, 4-H club leaders, county extension workers and of course, your own local cooperative service agency.

Delaware Park Ups New Castle Handicap To $50,000 Added

Distance Extended To Mile and Quarter In Effort To Make Effective Championship Test For Fillies And Mares; Only 2 Other Races As Rich

Delaware Park has increased the New Castle Handicap to $50,000 added, making it one of the richest filly and mare races in the world, according to an announcement from Donald P. Ross, president of the track, which begins its meeting on May 29. Conceivably it could become the richest. The new step is expected to be a boon to the breeding industry, as well as providing an outstanding spectacle for the racegoer, and was reached following consultation with leaders at Delaware as well as with General Manager Bryan Field, and Racing Secretary Gil Haus.

At present there are only two other $50,000 races in America for mares and fillies, the Delmar at Aqueduct in the fall, and the Santa Margarita at Santa Anita in February. A search of the British, Australian and French record books shows rich and traditional events for the distaff side, but none to the value of the American races mentioned above.

Belmont Park has a $50,000 added race exclusively for three-year-old fillies in the Coaching Club American Oaks; and Santa Anita has a $50,000 added event in the Santa Susana with the same conditions for three-year-olds. But these are all there are—whether one takes the sex for three-year-olds alone—or for female horses no matter what their age.

It is thought at Delaware Park that the New Castle can become a championship test for the sex, as preceding it are many of the outstanding filly and mare races of the country. A natural sequence, for example, is the Coaching Club to be run June 2 at Belmont; to be followed by the $33,000 Delaware Oaks, set for June 18; and culminating with the New Castle set for June 30.

So that the New Castle will be truly of championship caliber, the distance will be revised upward from 1 1/16 miles to 1 1/4 miles. Its starting fee and other details also will be changed, so that the gross value of the race, depending on the response of horsemen, can possibly surpass the 1950 gross of the Belvedere which was $66,000, or the gross of the Santa Margarita which was $60,000. Delaware's new Castle always has been a fine race under its past $25,000 value; and the new circumstances are expected to make for a big jump in entries and interest.

Some of the other outstanding filly, and or, filly and mare races, which will chronologically precede the newly endowed New Castle, are the Kentucky Oaks, May 4; Jamaica's Firenze Handicap, May 5; Garden State's Colonial Handicap, May 12; Belmont's Coaching Club; Delaware Park's Own Oaks race which will precede the New Castle by two weeks; the Top Flight also at Belmont, but on June 20; as well as big distaff-side tests in New England, Maryland and Illinois. With the new richness of the New Castle, and the handicap conditions, its June 30 date could make it a melting pot for most, or all of these winners looking to a Queen of the Turf crowned at Delaware Park.

The new departure at Delaware is also a response to the breeders of America, who through various organizations have been pleading for years for more and richer races for the weaker equine sex. Delaware Park has always ranked high as to this type of race on the roster of American tracks. Delaware conducts sport for 32 continuous days and in 1950, 11.3% of its races were for fillies and mares. In the past the New Castle has been won by outstanding colorbearers, the last running having been taken by Walter M. Jeffords' Adile.

Delaware Park has not yet announced its full stake schedule, Racing Secretary Haus having been in consultation with Messrs. Ross and Field for some time. The Delaware Track traditionally has had one of the largest stake distributions of any track of its size, and its per diem average annually has exceeded most of its near neighbors, whether north or south.

Delaware Park Adds To Publicity Staff

Fred Hayden, AP Sports Writer Named

Fred Hayden, identified with racing and the Associated Press for more than twenty years, will join the Delaware Park publicity staff, according to an announcement from Bryan Field, vice president and general manager of the track.

Hayden will be taking the third job of his career when he joins Al Fahey at Delaware Park, the first two having been with the N. Y. Evening Sun and the Associated Press. For approximately twenty years Hayden was track man for A. P. at the leading courses in the country, and his "By-Line" became nationally known on feature stories originating from the "Big Apple" tracks in New York, as well as from those in Maryland, New Jersey and Florida. Fred, in addition to being a first-class reporter, has abilities of a somewhat more doubtful quantity as tennis star, golfer and piano player.

Main duties of this new addition to the Delaware Park family will be exploiting the new things that Donald Ross and Bryan Field have in prospect at Delaware Park. Fred will begin his duties in approximately a fortnight and will swing the assignment during the meeting which runs from May 29th to July 4th, both dates inclusive.

Big Car Auto Race At Reading Sunday

Indianapolis Winner In Top-Flight Field

Traditionally, the outstanding early season speed presentation in the East, Promoter Sam Nunis' inaugural big car auto races here at the Reading Fairgrounds this Sunday will be replete with topflight drivers and cars. Headed by Indianapolis winner Johnnie Parsons, the Reading entry list includes the names of Tommy Hinnershitz, defending Eastern AAA dirt track champion, and leadfoot Troy Ruttman, who in many quarters is regarded as the most daring big car driver in the country today.

Parsons and Hinnershitz, are familiar figures in races at Reading, but Ruttman has not competed here before. He will drive the famed Anglian Offenhauser, the same car in which he established a whole host of new speed records last year.

Parsons will be at the wheel of the Offy he purchased early last season from 1949 Indianapolis winner Bill Holland, and Hinnershitz will be back in the Ted Horn Offenhauser which he campaigned with marked success on eastern dirt tracks.

More than 20 drivers and cars are expected to compete, and the starting field will include such all eastern standbys as Al Stine, Lee Wallard, Mark Light, Hank Rogers and Buster Warke.

The program will get under way with time trials at 1 p.m. The competitive events, which begin at 2:30 p.m., will include four 10-lap heat races, a match race, and a 30-lap featured sweepstakes final.

Horse Bettors Can Now Win The Horse

Things are cooking at Laurel Race Course where a 24-day meeting is in full swing.

In addition to three stake events still to be decided other attractions are in the offing which will hold the interest of the patrons, both men and women.

Saturday, April 7 will be a big day for those who fancy their own ability to pick the horses. On that afternoon, boxes will be installed at advantageous points all over the grounds in which Laurel's customers may drop their selections for the day. All must be in, of course, prior to the first race.

Then the person who selects the best percentage of winners will receive as a prize, a Maryland-bred horse.

For Laurel's patrons the remainder of the meeting will be run on the slogan of "never a dull moment."

State Coonhunters Stage Field Trials

89 Dogs Enter Event At Ogletown

Dog owners from three surrounding states joined in the Delaware Coonhunters' first trial of the season recently at the Ed Walker farm near Ogletown.

A field of 89 hounds competed for prizes. The owners came from Delaware, Maryland, Pennsylvania and New Jersey.

The winners in various classes were: tree final, first, "Danny Boy," owned by W. Harrington, Manheim, Pa., second, "Wait and See," owned by William Kelly, Hamburg, Pa.

Line final—First, "Slow and Easy," O. N. Andrews, Easton, Md.; second, "Atta Boy," William Kelly, Hamburg, Pa.

Winner of the 22-pound turkey was N. W. Harding, Elkton, Md.

Date for the Coonhunters' second trial will be announced in the near future.

Rose Tree Hunter And Colt Show At Media On Saturday

Trials To Start At 10 A.M.; Featherfield Plate To Be Feature

The fifteenth annual Rose Tree Hunter Trials will take place Saturday at Media, Pa., with the addition of the second annual colt show.

Four classes in trials will take place in the morning starting at 10 a.m. while three of the more important classes will be held in the afternoon beginning at 2 o'clock.

The most interesting event of the day will be the Featherfield Plate for hunt teams. This trophy was retired last year by Stewart Cheshire Hounds. It will be represented by Mr. and Mrs. John B. Hannum, 3rd, of the Cheshire Hounds and competed for under the original conditions which state that permanent possession of the trophy will be gained by the first owner winning it three times.

The colt show is headed by Thomas F. Simons, master at Rose Tree and a member of the Pennsylvania Horse Breeders Association which is sponsoring this show. Five classes will be shown. Actually there will be ten classes as each class will be run in two divisions, one for thoroughbreds and the other for other than thoroughbreds. This show will also start at 10 a.m. and continue throughout the day.

Newark Wins Susky Play-off Court Title; Enters State Tests

Downs Elkton Twice In Row; Debut Tomorrow In DST Rivalry

The Newark AA cagers swept by Elkton in two straight games last week to romp off with the play-off title in the Susquehanna Basketball League.

Elkton, which tied Newark for second in the final league standings, went down by score of 62-75 and 57-81 last Thursday and Friday.

Not content with the Susky league laurels, Newark is now bidding for honors in the Delaware State Tourney underway at Fournier Hall, Wilmington.

Eleven of the state's top teams are in the competition.

The Newark club, which is seeded fourth, earned a bye in the first round and meets its first test tomorrow night at 7:15 against General Motors.

Other teams in the race are: Claymont, Frankies AC, KA Fraternity, Shannahan AC, St. Anthony's, St. John's, Steellani Five, Pennsylvania Railroad, Rockco's.

Farm Short Course Set For June 20-23

30th Annual Class For 4-H Youth

The 30th annual 4-H Short Course will be held at the University of Delaware, June 20-23, according to an announcement by Miss M. Jean Lee, state 4-H Club specialist, this week.

This annual leadership and project training school is held for older 4-H boys and girls, between the ages of 14 and 21. They will spend three days at the university, learning the latest methods in home economics and agriculture. Classes will be held each morning and early afternoon, followed by a well-rounded recreation program and special events in the evening.

One of the highlights of the short course this year, will be the State Dress Revue, to be held the last night, June 23. 4-H girls from all over the state will model suits, dresses, coats, and other garments which they made as part of their clothing projects. The dress revue will be held in Mitchell Hall, on the University of Delaware campus.

Varsity Nine Takes Shape As Jackets Prep For Conrad Debut

Outstanding Prospects For Infield Berths And Pitching Staff Listed By Coach Mercer; Opener Set For April 17

The rough outlines of Newark High School's 1951 baseball varsity team to take shape as yesterday the candidates rounded out their first week of practice under the watchful eyes of Coach Frank Mercer and assistant Bill Miller.

The Jackets still have almost two weeks to whip their starting line-up into shape for their opener here with Conrad on April 17.

The Conrad tilt will launch a 14-game schedule, including seven league games.

Mercer said yesterday that a number of the boys already are showing promising form. Among those likely to see mound action in the coming campaign are Tom Baker, Sam Baker and Blaney are holdovers from last year's varsity.

A wealth of talent is also shown up for the infield, according to Mercer. Good prospects for third base are Ronald Bramble, a returnee from last year, and Arthur Boulden. Look for the competition for second base to be between William Knotts. The latter saw action last season.

Possibilities for shortstop are Edward Blaney, when he is not on mound duty, and Jack Cleaver. The first sack is being disputed by Blaney and Joe Gregg, another varsity player.

Joe Thorpe is the outstanding prospect for duty behind the plate.

4-H Club Benefits To Youth Are Stressed

Puts Leisure Time To Maximum Use

4-H Clubs provide rural youth with the best opportunity to join together for mutual gain and use of leisure time and to promote cooperation and leadership. Maurice B. Field, 4-H Club Agent, Mr. Field goes on to explain that each 4-H club is a unit in democracy in action. When meetings are held there is free discussion and activities are determined by parliamentary rules.

Membership in a 4-H club is voluntary, and these groups help build strong progressive communities by sponsoring social and patriotic programs, citizenship ceremonies, conducting fire prevention and other safety campaigns, carrying out conservation programs and assisting in crop control, county fairs, social welfare and church services.

4-H is for all rural youth, and because of its volunteer leadership is the most economical educational program yet devised. Help keep America strong by joining a 4-H club or help organize one in your neighborhood. County Club Agent Field is located in the County Extension Office on the University of Delaware campus. He will be glad to assist you.

Workers Laid Off As TV Sales Drop

A drop in sales of television sets has resulted in large scale layoffs among TV workers, industry and labor officials said recently.

See estimates placed the total number of workers given temporary furloughs at 10,000.

In addition to a falling off in sales, there is a shortage of parts due to restrictions on metals needed for defense.

ADVERTISEMENT FOR BIDS

The Delaware State Police will receive sealed proposals for furnishing six (6) Standard 1951 Tudor Sedans, and motor vehicles not to list more than $100.00 each and be equipped with heater, air filter, side mirror, directional signal, and front seat covers. Color to be furnished is gun metal gray.

Trade-in allowance must be made for the above-mentioned bid. A list of cars to be traded, stating at what Troop of the Delaware State Police the cars may be seen, will be furnished upon request.

All bids should be enclosed in a sealed envelope and clearly marked "BID" and must be received at the Headquarters of the Delaware State Police, State Road, Delaware, on or before 9:30 a.m., E.S.T., Thursday, April 19, 1951. Bids will be opened on that date by the State Highway Commission.

The successful bidder will only have responsibility insofar as service is concerned of delivering the automobiles to the Delaware State Police Garage, Delaware, after which time this Department will assume the responsibility of service.

All bids submitted must be for the net price, not including Federal Tax.

It is further agreed that any dealer submitting a bid will not use the name of the Department in any advertising if he is the successful bidder.

The Department reserves the right to reject any or all bids if it so desires.

Farm Fire Loss Is High In Delaware

Fire Preventive Program Needs Support

"There is nothing that fills my mind with more apprehension when I am away from home than fire," George Washington said that in a letter in 1797. Today farm fires are just as dreaded.

According to Mr. Granville White of Laurel, State Fire Recorder, last year 1,251,702 dollars worth of damage was done by fires in Delaware outside the city of Wilmington. Most of this loss, 3/4 of it, was in rural areas. Nine people were killed.

Edward H. Schabinger, New Castle County Agricultural Agent, says even in ordinary times the seriousness of this must be evident to farm people. Now, with the tense situation all over the world, such a loss of equipment and property in 1951 would be tragic.

Farm families are now asked to help in a fire prevention program for 1951. The Agricultural Extension Service, Delaware Safety Council and Rural Firemen's Association are all helping in this campaign. The State Civilian Defense is also interested, for if bombing does occur here, it will be up to each farm family to have the equipment and "know-how" to put out fires without any help.

Your County Extension Office has check sheets and enrollment cards. Call the office. Telephone Newark 511, Extension 325. Enroll now.

NEWARK TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

From Issue of May 5, 1926

Marble Champ

Young "Vic" Willis, a veritable chip-off the old block, is the marble "champion" of Newark.

The son of Victor Willis, local hotel man and pitching star in the big leagues many seasons back, has started out to keep the family name in high places wherever sport is the topic. His first championship, won last week, at marbles gives him the right to enter the all-county meet.

Vic defeated William Dean 7-6 to win the Newark title.

George Dawson although a consistent scorer was defeated in the semifinal round by Willis and Dean.

High School Losses

Beacon College threw a jolt into Newark High on the Wilmington diamond yesterday afternoon, winning easily 11-4 in a seven-inning game.

Errors by the locals figured in six of the eleven runs by the city team. Harkness pitched creditably, but hits came at critical times. Chalmers contributed his usual heavy hitting, walling the ball for a homerun early in the game.

Railroader Dies

Following two strokes suffered within a month, Robert J. Colbert, 69, well-known resident of Newark, died early yesterday morning at his home on West Delaware Avenue. Mr. Colbert lived in Newark and vicinity all his life and had a host of friends. He was a mechanic for the Pennsylvania Railroad for nearly half a century.

Mrs. R. O. Bausman entertained 50 guests at a bridge and sewing party at her home on Park Place last Thursday.

A 12-pound baby boy, Oliver V. Suddard, came to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Suddard on April 29.

Dr. and Mrs. R. W. Heim and Mrs.

Heim's mother, Mrs. Fye, motored to Harrisburg on Friday. Dr. and Mrs. Heim returned on Sunday.

Miss Charlotte Dayett was the guest of Miss Marjorie Johnson last week-end.

The Monday Night Bridge Club was entertained by Miss Margaret Cook at supper last Monday. Those present were: Miss Marion Pixley, Miss Freda Ritz, Mrs. Thomas Ingham, Miss Dora Law, Miss Ethel Campbell, Miss Alice Kerr, Miss Alberta Heiser, Miss Olive Heiser, Miss Edwina Long, Miss Marion Lewis, Miss Nora B. Keeley and Miss Kathryn Woods.

The story of a faith that paid off

YOU KNOW IT'S TRUE BECAUSE IT'S HAPPENED TO YOU AND YOUR FRIENDS AND NEIGHBORS

PROBABLY YOU'VE never thought of yourself as a maker of history. But you are. And here is how you, as a citizen of the United States, are creating the greatest success in all history.

Remember back in 1941 when the Defense Bonds you were buying suddenly had to become War Bonds? How you and your neighbors pitched in to buy them in ever-increasing numbers, to back our fighting men and to help achieve the victory of World War II? After V-J Day, when those bonds became Savings Bonds, you continued to buy them because you had learned how regular saving could build security and contentment for yourself and those you love.

The face of the land has undergone some dramatic changes in those years since V-J Day. Now the landscape is dotted with new homes that Savings Bonds built. Thousands upon thousands of new automobiles travel the highways—Savings Bonds cars, bought with the product of individual thrift. On the farms, Bond-purchased equipment has helped produce bumper crops and prosperous years. Everywhere in America, man's urge to get into business for himself has become a bright reality. So has the ambition of loving parents to send their children through college. Time and time again, Savings Bonds have made those dreams and many others come true.

You KNOW they've come true, because it's happened to you or to some of your own friends.

And this is only the beginning of the story. Even after accomplishing so much, millions of American families still enjoy the financial security of owning more than fifty billion dollars—fifty thousand million dollars in Savings Bonds. More than at the peak of war-time Bond holdings!

How much money is that? It's enough to build a new $10,000 mortgage-free home for every family in San Francisco—and Sacramento—and Salt Lake City—and Denver—and Kansas City—and St. Louis—and Indianapolis—and Cincinnati—and Pittsburgh—and New York City—and the whole state of Texas!

And every week, everywhere in America, new millions of dollars are added to the total—as crisp new Savings Bonds are typed up with your name on them.

Kind of a king-size success story, isn't it? Your success story because you and the millions of your neighbors are living it right now. Your own faith in America—your own desire for the warmth of family security and independence—have made the story of United States Savings Bonds the thrift miracle of all time.

For your security, and your country's too, save now - through regular purchase of U.S. Savings Bonds

Hobby Show Awards Won By Girl Scouts

Clay Exhibits, Dolls, Puppets Earn Prizes

Five Newark Girl Scout troops won awards in their class at the Wilmington Hobby Show held the latter part of last week at the D. S. DuPont High School.

Troop 151, under Mrs. C. B. Brown, Jr., and Mrs. William Dannenhauer, took a second place prize for its clay work exhibit.

Another second place award went to Troops 14 and 33 for their support display. Troop 14 is led by Mrs. E. W. Smith and Mrs. Arthur Dunlap, and Troop 33 is under Mrs. Harry Reynolds, Mrs. Russell Hyre and Mrs. R. F. Darsie.

Sue Roberts of Troop 13, under Mrs. Russell Remane and Mrs. Fred Claflee, came home with first place award for her oil painting.

Troop 1 earned an honorable mention for its doll collection, and Troop 33 received an honorable mention for its clay work exhibit. Troop 1 is directed by Mrs. L. W. Walbridge, Mrs. Frank Rush and Mrs. Frances Bratton.

Visiting Nurse Made

219 Calls In March

A total of 219 visits, including 204 nursing calls, were made by Miss Alice Leak, Newark's visiting nurse, during March.

Heart disease was the most frequent complaint, with nine patients requiring 36 visits. Apoplexy was also common. Five cases received 35 calls by Miss Leak. The breakdown for the remainder follows: paralysis, 3 visits; 20 arthritis, 1 visit; 8 kidney disease, 4 visits; 20 prenatal cases, 1 visit; 3 anemia, 3 visits; 8 diabetes, 1 visit; 8 cancer, 2 visits; 21 intestinal diseases, 4 visits; 14 tuberculosis, 1 visit; 4 shingles, 1 visit; 8 infections, 1 visit; 3; grippes, 2 visits; 7; miscellaneous, 9 visits, 24.

The Newark juniors were chosen by their classmates and the faculty to represent the school. They were picked on the basis of their scholastic standards and qualities of leadership.

Miss Fox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pierce Fox, Bear Station, serves on the Student Council, and the high school student newspaper staff. She is a 4-H member and president of the school's chapter of Future Homemakers of America. She is also active in the Methodist Church, where she is a member of the youth fellowship and secretary of the Sunday School.

Miss Gray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas C. Gray, Paper Mill Road, is a member of the high school modern dance class and the Future Teachers Club. She also plays varsity hockey and basketball.

Alternates from Newark High to the mock legislature will be Miss Sylvia Field and Miss Laura Jane Reed.

Mrs. W. Francis Lindell, 49 Prospect Avenue, is chairman of the Legion Auxiliary committee on arrangements.

State Bands Fete

The festival will open at 9:30 a.m. with 15-minute concerts by each band in Mitchell Hall. Playing will continue without interruption until about 2 o'clock, when the bands will form for a parade through the streets of Newark. The parade will proceed along Delaware Avenue, Haines Street, Main Street, South College Avenue, to the campus. At the Memorial Library, the bands will mass for two selections, "Our Director" and "Our Delaware".

The leaders for these two numbers, respectively, will be Paul Carson, director of the band at West Chester Teachers College, and J. Robert King, acting chairman of the U. of D.'s music department. The concert will end at about 3:30 p.m.

All the events are open to the public, according to Frank M. Beymer of P. S. DuPont High School, chairman of the state band committee for the Delaware Music Educators Association.

Noted String Quartet To Give Concert April 12 On Mitchell Hall Stage

The Loewenguth String Ensemble, noted musical group from Paris, will present a concert at Mitchell Hall, University of Delaware, Thursday night, April 12, in the season's final of the 1950-51 artist series at the University of Delaware.

Joining with the ensemble will be Marisa Regules, pianist. Members of the ensemble are Alfred Loewenguth, first violinist, Maurice Puert, second violinist, and Pierre Basseux, 'cello.

The ensemble was organized by Loewenguth in 1929 when its members were students at the Conservatoire in Paris. They made their American debut in 1937, winning acclaim from critics and devotees of chamber music. They returned 11 years later to present six concerts devoted to the quartets of Beethoven, and at that time reaffirmed their distinguished position among the world's chamber music groups. The ensemble now is making annual visits to the United States.

Virgil Thomson, New York critic, says that the ensemble "comes as near perfection in the classical style as any group I have heard in late years."

Miss Regules, who does not perform regularly with the ensemble, is regarded as one of South America's outstanding pianists. Since making her debut in Madrid several years ago, she has performed in many cities in Europe, South America, and this country, and has appeared as soloist with such orchestras as the Philadelphia Orchestra and the National Symphony Orchestra of Washington.

The Mitchell Hall concert, at 8:15 p.m. on April 12, will be open to the public through sale of reserved seats at the University Bookstore, or at the boxoffice on the night of the performance.

School Legislation Is Topic At Rotary

Robert Durkee Outlines School Needs

Robert L. Durkee, Executive Secretary of the Delaware State Education Association, outlined the present state legislative program for education to members of the Newark Rotary Club at their regular meeting last Monday night (Apr. 2).

"We are at war," said Durkee. "We are in a race with catastrophe. And in order to preserve our American way of life, we must win." Education, he pointed out, is our first and most important weapon of defense.

The legislative program he discussed included the regrouping of small school districts into larger units, education for handicapped children, urgently needed school buildings, University of Delaware needs, and increments in salaries and retirement.

Three Newark Students Are Enrolled At Duke University

Richard Amos Davis, Thomas Edward Davis, and Marilyn Murray, all of Newark, are students at Duke University.

Richard and Thomas Davis are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brandon Davis, 54 East Cleveland Avenue. The former is a pre-legal student, and the latter is studying engineering.

Miss Murray, a freshman, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Murray, late of 222 South College Avenue. Mr. Murray and his family moved recently to Durham, where he took over the job as coach of the Duke football team.

Auxiliary Asks For 'Moral Rearmament'

Vital As Military Defense Chaplain Says

A call for "moral rearmament and spiritual reinforcement" of the nation as a necessary accompaniment of military rearmament and the defense program was issued this week by Mrs. Helen Trull, chaplain for the J. A. O'Daniel Unit, No. 10, American Legion Auxiliary.

She joined in making the plea with auxiliary units throughout the country, who spoke through the national chaplain, Mrs. David Lefkowitz, Jr.

Mrs. Lefkowitz said: "We are spending billions for defense and for expansion of the armed services. We of the Legion family recognize better perhaps than anyone else how necessary this is, in view of prevailing world conditions. But as religious men and women, we recognize also that it will be money thrown away unless moral rearmament and spiritual reinforcement accompany its use."

"We of the Legion," she continued, "have as our motto, 'For God and Country.' If we make certain that our children have the first, the second will more readily be assured. Let us give them a security that is beyond gunfire and atomic explosions—the sound knowledge and the unshakable faith implied in those words of old Thou shalt love the Lord thy God, with all thy heart, and with all thy soul and with all thy might. And thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself."

The property at 16 Academy Street, formerly owned by the late Dr. Charles Dunlevy, has been purchased by Flore Nardo, proprietor of the Nardo Grocery Store at 24 Academy Street.

D. D. Lanning, 116 Dallow Road, has been appointed disaster chairman and C. R. Rylander, 272 South Chapel Street, safety services chairman of the Red Cross, according to Dr. R. O. Baisman, chairman of Red Cross Area I.

Mr. Lanning is with the Cellophane Division of the DuPont Company, and Mr. Rylander is a member of the DuPont Company, and Mr. Rylander is a member of the Physical Education Department, University of Delaware.

Both appointments have been approved by John R. Fader, director of civil defense for Newark. They will operate as Red Cross aides and as a part of the Civil Defense organization.

Girl Scout Troop 1 In Year's First Hike

Members of Girl Scout Troop 1 carried out the season's first hike recently under the leadership of Mrs. L. W. Walbridge, Mrs. Frank Rush and Mrs. Francis Bratton.

The walking tour extended some distance out Creek Road, and the group prepared lunch in the open.

Five members of the troop recently helped staple, address and stamp the Girl Scout monthly paper, "The Compass." In the group were: Peggy Borchardt, Dorothea Kakavas, Virginia Moore, Ruth Davis, and Joyce Walbridge.
