

Chief Cunningham Reports Reduction In Speed Offenses

Arrests For Past Month Sliced In Half Compared With Preceding Period

The March monthly report of Newark Police Chief William H. Cunningham shows speeding almost cut in half, from 51 arrests in February to 26 in March. However, arrests for passing red lights soared from three to 14; drunken driving rose from three cases to seven; and driving without a license from three to five.

There were five cases of unauthorized use of a motor vehicle and four of knowingly permitting an unauthorized driver to use a car—offenses that did not occur at all in February.

Reckless driving fell from five to three cases, but a number of other offenses on the blotter did not appear in February—failing to obtain Delaware licenses and registrations, displaying fictitious plates, failing to change address, improper passing, failing to yield right of way, driving with four in front seat, driving unsafe vehicle, passing stop sign and going the wrong way on a one-way street.

There were 29 accidents in March compared to 23 in February.

There were only 18 mishaps in the snowy March a year ago.

Altogether the city police filed 100 charges against 91 persons in March, of which 83 arrests of 76 persons involved vehicle infractions. The other 17 included seven cases of drunkenness, two of assault and battery, two of forgery, two morals counts, two non-support charges, one second-degree murder charge and one held as a fugitive.

Alderman Clarence S. Foster dismissed one case, held 19 for other courts, sent six to the New Castle Correctional Institution, and fined the rest.

... TO THE PENINSULA!

$12,500,000 for 1959—That's what we're allocating this year in our construction budget for expansion projects throughout the Delmarva Peninsula. Why are we spending this impressive amount? Because we strongly believe in the economic future of the Peninsula . . . an area that is among the fastest growing in the nation. This expansion, year after year, is proof of our determination to maintain an adequate power supply in advance of the need . . . in every part of our service area.

A large share of our construction expenditure is being directed toward expansion and extension of transmission and distribution facilities, increasing power availability to present customers and extending service to new ones.

We are presently nearing completion of the addition to our operations building at 630 West Front Street, and preliminary work has begun on construction of an additional floor and other improvements to our general office building at 600 Market Street, Wilmington.

All these projects mean increased efficiency through up-to-date, modern facilities to help bring more power to you . . . to everybody on the Peninsula . . . for better living, electrically.

FARM SURPLUS ANSWER

The widely publicized programs for dealing with the agricultural surplus problem are generally political programs. Matter how greatly they may differ in their provisions, invariably involve the spending of billions of tax money. A good many variants of such programs have been tried. It can be fairly said, have been flat failures. The surplus cost of subsidizing surplus have reached stupefying proportions.

Yet there is a sensible, non-political way in which the American farmer can greatly help to reduce the surplus, and number of agricultural experts have advocated it. It lies in expanding livestock production. Homer Davison, president of the American Meat Institute, in these clear words: "An expanding animal agriculture is the best way to attack so-called basic commodity overproduction. If 10 per cent of the farmland presently producing food and fibre crops were diverted to raising meat animals or producing feed for livestock, we could reduce our surplus enough to bring production into balance with consumption."

Then Mr. Davison made an additional important point: The perishable nature of meat makes it a commodity which is controlled production. The free market price is probably the only practical instrument that can be used successfully to balance production with consumption and be fair both producer and consumer.

To this can be added the fact that people like meat, are eating more of it, and will consume still more in the future if it is available. The case for an expanding animal agriculture is an overwhelming one.

The Newark Recreation Association is a United Community Fund agency serving the greater Newark area.

Incorporated in 1946, the association was accepted as a Red Feather agency in 1955 and received its first allocation in 1955.

The "record catch" referred to by Prendergast totaled 124,821 persons participating in the 1958 program at a cost of $35,900.

The United Community Fund underwrites 70 per cent of the cost, with each "catch" costing less than a quarter to the citizens of the community.

In releasing the letter, Robert C. Meyer, new president of the Newark Recreation Association, expressed his appreciation to citizens of the community for their support of the United Community Fund and the NRA.

"We are very pleased to have received this honor from the National Recreation Association and wish to thank the United Community Fund and the thousands of contributors. Without their support we could not have done the job," Meyer said.

Messrs. Meyer and Dutton complimented Director Stanley Francis and Asst. Director Barry Kay for a "job well-done."

English, Russian Comedy Scheduled At Mitchell Hall

An evening of English and Russian comedy will be offered by the E-52 Laboratory Theatre in Mitchell Hall this Friday with Noel Coward's "Fumed Oak" and Anton Chekhov's "Marriage Proposal."

"Fumed Oak" is a comedy from the Noel Coward "Tonight at 8:30" series which was so successful in amiable and hardworking Henry Gow who is completely dominated New York and London. It concerns a woman.

One night Henry returns home with new courage—and the fun begins.

"The Marriage Proposal" deals with an excitable, nervous young man's efforts to propose to an attractive but strong-minded young woman.

This will be the second time this season that the E-52 Theatre has participated in the International Theatre celebration, sponsored by the UNESCO, the American Educational Theatre Association, and Theatre Arts Magazine, to promote international understanding through presentation of plays by foreign authors and about foreign peoples.

The public is invited to this program with no admission fee.

Newark High Track Stars Win Elkton, William Penn Openers

Gene Waller, Dick Shannon, Pete Moroz Finish First, Second, Third In Final 220-Yd. Dash To Top Colonials In Conference Meet After Stopping Elkton In Opener

Trailing by four points with the final event coming up, Coach Ray Ciesinski's Newark Yellowjackets defeated William Penn's Colonials yesterday in a Newark home stand as Gene Waller, Dick Shannon, and Pete Moroz finished one, two, three in the 220-yd. dash.

It was the Yellowjackets' second victory in as many outings, and the first win over a Blue Hen Conference track and field opponent.

Newark defeated Elkton High School here last Friday in the season opener, 69-46. Other winners for the Yellowjacket varsity track and field squad in yesterday's Colonial contest were Waller in the 100; Ed Springer in the high and low hurdles; Bill Brown with the shot; Ken Harrington in the pole vault; and Bob Harmer over the grueling 440-yd. route.

Against Elkton last Friday, Brown and Shannon turned in twin wins to lead the Yellowjacket victors. Brown won the javelin toss with a heave of 144-6; the discus, with a distance of 112-8; and Shannon sprinted to first place finishes in the 100 with a time of 10.7, and in the 220 at 24.1.

Coach Ray Ciesinski's charges compete at Wilmington High School next Monday afternoon, and travel to P. S. du Pont for a meet with the Dynahs the following Monday.

Al Neiger To Hurl For Hens At Home In Saturday Game

Blue Hen baseball fans will have an opportunity to see Al Neiger and his phenomenal pitching string here Saturday against Washington College.

The Chestertown, Md., school is no baseball pushover either. Last year, Coach Tom Kibler's charges dealt Delaware one of its three losses.

Neiger extended his streak to 45 innings without an earned run as the Hens walloped Muhlenberg, 8-0, at Allentown, Pa., on Saturday. The junior left-hander out of Wilmington High fanned 15 and walked four. The Hens now have a 6-2-1 record.

Coach Tubby Raymond hadn't planned to start Neiger, but was going to pitch him only the last five innings to "loosen up." However, the southpaw told Raymond he was feeling good, and the coach changed his mind—not Neiger's. Neiger's performance left no doubt that he was in top form. He struck out four of the first six men, averaged two strikeouts an inning up to the sixth, and then coasted behind a healthy lead.

The Hens collected eight hits, played flawlessly and stole six bases. Leading the eight-hit attack were Leon Dombrowski and Pape Lunk with three singles each. Sonny Rehm, with a solo homer in the fourth, accounted for the only extra-base hit.

Gil Mahla Breaks 39-Year-Old Mark With 220-Yd. Dash

Delaware basketball and track star Gil Mahla broke a 39-year-old Delaware track record, oldest on the university's books, when the junior from Claymont was clocked in 21.5 for the 220-yard dash in a dual meet at Swarthmore on Saturday. Mahla broke a one-half of a second the record of 22 seconds flat set by Ed Pitman in 1920 and tied by Marion Davidson in 1947.

Now, the oldest university record is the two-mile of 9:45 established by Vern Booth in 1921. Delaware was swamped by Swarthmore for team honors, however, losing by 8 1/2 to 44 1/2. But it was no fault of Mahla and Ed Moore.

Mahla, whose time also set a record for the Swarthmore track, won the 440, too, in 51.2.

Moore, junior from Seaford, accounted for Delaware's only other wins, taking the 100 in 10.4 and the broad jump with a leap of 21.2.

John Hoffman, Swarthmore pole vaulter, cleared 12-7 to set a new school record.

This was Delaware's second straight loss. For Swarthmore, it was the third consecutive victory. The Hens compete tomorrow and Saturday in the Penn Relays at Philadelphia and face Johns Hopkins on Tuesday here in Newark.

everywhere in the United States goes to promote fishing and that good fishing and fishing facilities attract thousands of tourists to Delaware.

Good fishing and attractive facilities depend on adequate funds for research, management, construction and maintenance.

Cortland's Invitation
Dick Jennings, Cortland Line Company's friendly public relation writes:

"We invite any sportsmen's or service club planning a fishing rodeo for the kids to contact us. We are preparing a furnish, no charge, a quantity of lines (both fly and casting) in special short lengths for small anglers. Be sure to let us know the date of the fishing rodeo and approximate number of kids expected."

"We support kids fishing contests because they do serve to introduce a lot of kids to a sport they can enjoy the rest of their lives," Jennings continues. "However, we would like to see sportsmen's clubs go further than this by promoting regular programs for the small fry within the club that would be designed to educate them in good sportsmanship, proper angling techniques and sound conservation practices."

And Delaware's Jim Godsey is right in line with what Dick Jennings and Cortland Line advocate. "Jungle Jim" is the promoter of Delaware's state-wide Junior Fishing Rodeo.

"To err is human—but generally a much better excuse is demanded."

Don Miller Sought For Amherst Post As Football Coach

Former All-American, Coach Of Yellowjacket Champs, Weighs Offer

Newark's Don Miller, Little All-American quarterback from the University of Delaware who has kept right on winning as head football coach at Newark High School, may join the varsity staff at Amherst, as line coach.

"I feel well qualified to coach a line," Miller explained. "I've always worked closely with Mike Lude, Delaware line coach. And one year at Newark, I had to do my own line-coaching."

Amherst has a new head coach, Jim Ostendarp, a former Bucknell halfback who played some professional football with the New York Giants.

Miller spent several days at Amherst on spring vacation and was impressed with the all-male, 1,000 student college and its facilities. He said he was interviewed by the college president and its dean of men. Miller said the original offer came from Ostendarp, who is a friend of his.

Don Miller's four seasons, the Yellowjackets have won 31 games and lost two. He had undefeated teams in 1956 and in 1958, winning the championship of the first Blue Hen Conference race.

Miller was the Delaware Interscholastic Football Coaches Association's "Coach of the Year" in 1956.

Miller came out of Prospect Park, Pa., as a center who made quarterbacking history at Delaware. He and Coach Nelson started their U and A careers simultaneously in 1951 and sparked the Blue Hens to some of their greatest football achievements.

Don started all 34 games of his college life and was Little All-American as a senior.

Owls Top Bandits To Tie Playoffs For Intermediates

The Owls tied up the championship series in the NRA Intermediate Basketball League by defeating the Bandits, 35-29. The series now stands at one game each as the prolonged season reaches its finale.

Down one point at the half, 13-14, the Owls hit for nine during the third period and held the Bandits to three points. During the fourth period it was point for point as the Owls netted 13 to the Bandits 12.

The game was very close until the first of the third period when Chick Hayman, high-scoring center for the Bandits, was sidelined with a shoulder injury.

The big scoring for the Owls was by Lee Money with 15, and Brown with 13. Joe Studier hit for a field goal and a free throw; Ed Springer hit for three of the same, while Cliff Carney sank a free throw to complete the scoring.

The Bandit scoring was evenly distributed with Guy Johnson hitting for nine, McCloud, eight, Blansfield six, Hayman four, and Handloff two.

The championship series got off with a fast, hard-fought opener as the Bandits out-scored the Owls, 37-35, in a last second scoring contest.

With a 19-16 halftime score in favor of the Bandits, the game continued a point trading basis up to the very end.

Tied up at 35-all with less than a minute to play, the Owls failed to score on a double free throw, and the Bandits took the rebound for a mid-court shot by Johnson to break up the game.

Newark's Clymer Pitches 15 SO's In Jayvee Victory

Jack Clymer fired 15 strikeouts at the Kennett Square lumbermen as Coach Grant Ewell's Newark High School junior varsity Yellowjackets won a 2-1 opener, away, yesterday.

In addition to turning in a masterful mound performance, Clymer, a sophomore athlete, led the junior Jackets in the hitting department with a pair of safeties in three turns at the plate, and scored one of the two Newark runs.

Ewell's jayvees scored two runs in the fifth inning, and Clymer blanked the Kennett Square nine until the sixth when the Pennsylvanians scored their one run.

Friday Deadline For Team Entries In Softball Loops

Deadline for entry in the Newark Recreation Association Softball League is this Friday, and league play will get underway May 11.

Already registered for the 1959 season are the returning champions of Continental Diamond Fibre and Local 1183, Tom Lee Buick, Motor Wheel and Mill Creek Trailer Court.

New teams rostered to date are Chrysler Tank, ASTEC, and Delaware City.

Church Recreation Softball League rosters are due tomorrow also, and a second managers' meeting for all teams will be held May 5 to discuss scheduling, field, and league rules.

Each team will play a double round robin schedule, with playoffs to determine league champions. With indicated interest, three leagues — Independent, Industrial and Church — may be formed.

Leagues are open to sponsored or independent teams, and information may be obtained at the Newark Recreation Association office, American Legion Building, 315 Delaware Circle.

St. Andrew's Cops Volleyball Crown In Church League

St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church won the first championship of the Newark Recreation Church Volleyball League. Losing the first game of the three-game set, St. Andrew's rallied to down Our Redeemer Lutheran, 15-10 and 17-15 to win the crown.

Behind 5-0 in the second game, and one game down, St. Andrew's tied the score before relinquishing serve. After a long exchange of serves and one point, St. Andrew's pulled ahead, 15-10, to tie up the series.

Volleying the ball for as many as 20 times before scoring or losing the serve, the third game saw by two or three points until at 13-13 tie, and with the championship in sight, St. Andrew's took a one point advantage, lost it and allowed Our Redeemer to get ahead in a 14-15 situation. But St. Andrew's came back, 17-15, and won the first Recreation Church Volleyball League Championship.

Our Redeemer won the first contest, 15-7, after leading by 9-0.

Yellowjackets Lose Two Consecutive Conference Games

Brandywine, Wilmington Nines Nip Newark Squad In Blue Hen Conference

Newark lost its second straight Blue Hen Conference baseball game Tuesday afternoon in hosting previously win-less Brandywine as the Bulldogs nipped Coach Joe Talanowski's Yellowjackets, 6-4.

Jimmy Umstead, a junior left-hander for the Brandywiners, gave up but three hits while fanning 14 Newark batters; collected three of his team's four hits off the deliveries of Carl Rice and drove in three big runs.

Shortstop Dave Stimmel; Catcher Walt Mackey; and First Baseman Peel accounted for the three Newark hits.

Brandywine jumped into a 3-1 first inning lead, and were on top all the way.

Last Friday, at Wilmington High School, Yellowjacket Bill Pollari was on top of a 4-3 count in the final seventh when the Red Devils rallied with a two-run explosion to alter the afternoon for the visitors.

First Baseman Carl Rice; Right Fielder Frank Jezzy; and Center Fielder Lloyd Wells each collected a pair of hits for the Yellowjackets' losing cause, as Wilmington's Al Shue gave up nine safeties in going the route.

Bill Stoebe sparked St. Andrew's with his hustle and vigorous front line play. The Rev. Duane Mehl, Our Redeemer pastor, played a hard game with fast, accurate spike shots set up by teammates.

In the one-game semi-finals, Our Redeemer whitewashed Holy Angels, 11-0, and St. Andrew's turned in a similar job on Newark Methodist, 11-0.

Calvary Baptist and a combined team of Newark First Presbyterian and Kingswood of Brookside Methodist rounded out the six-team league.

Record Number 286 Newark Boys Register For NRA Pony League Baseball Practice

A record number of 286 potential baseball stars turned out Saturday morning for the first general practice and tryout of the Newark Recreation Pony Leagues at the Central Junior High and Medill School fields, with 160 new boys registered for the four league system, and 126 veterans returning for another year of play.

It was reported that 14 of last year's players had been signed up by the Newark Little Leagues, while a generous percentage of last year's squads have moved or become too old for Recreation Pony League play.

The second and final general practice will be held this Saturday from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. at the same two locations, and it is expected that other boys in the 8-12 year bracket will report to bring the total close to 350.

Qualifying rounds for the ladies Classes of Eight Tournament are being played this week. Women's Golf Chairman Kay Barrows reports.

Research Workers Disclose New Methods Delaware Farmers In Hay Harvesting

I need a hay drier? That's a question a lot of farmers have asked themselves during the last few weeks.

Scientists at the University of Delaware have been working with new hay harvesting methods, and their findings are being put to use by Delaware farmers.

The amount of hay you're putting up is an important factor in deciding how complete a haymaking system you need. If you are handling 200 or more tons of hay per year, you may be able to justify a heated-air drying system, Mitchell says.

The minimum cost of putting in a heated-air hay drier, with all new equipment, will be in the neighborhood of $3,000, according to W. T. McAllister, extension farm management specialist.

Foreign Exchange Students To Speak For Century Club

Dana Downing and Wilfred Lowenhaupt, two students sponsored by the American Field Service, will tell of their experiences in this country and abroad at the meeting of the Newark New Century Club next Monday at 1:30 p. m.

John Conant, chairman of the New Castle committee, American Field Service, will accompany the students.

The theme will be "Fostering Friendship Through Foreign Students."

Mrs. F. W. Johns, Jr., president, will conduct the business meeting, and hostesses will be Mrs. Durand Kinloch and Mrs. Max Wirick, assisted by Mrs. Hoagland Gates, Mrs. Charles Eissner, Mrs. E. D. Turner, Jr., Mrs. Southard Jones and Mrs. Hobart Hare.

Robert Duncan, Newark High School student, will display some of his work in the Art Corner, with pen and ink, copper etchings and paintings to be exhibited.

Mrs. John F. Ingold, Jr., is program chairman.

This investment will give you a heating unit, tarpaulin, and four wooden stake-side wagons with common "American farmer ingenuity," McAllister says this figure can be cut to less than $3,000. This means using some good second-hand running gear and building your own slat bottoms for the wagons yourself.

Astronomer Mitchell says research results around the country show that both the crusher and crimper will help considerably. Although the crusher is somewhat more efficient, reducing drying time by about 50 per cent, the crimper is rated about even with the crusher because it is simpler to operate, although it speeds drying by about 30 per cent, somewhat less than the crusher.
