

MSS295 Thomas M. Reynolds letters to Louisa J. Seward, American Civil War Digital Collections: Letters, Special Collections, University of Delaware Library, Newark, Delaware.

Special Collections Department, University of Delaware Library / Newark, Delaware 19717-5267 / Phone: 302-831-2229 / Fax: 302-831-6003 / URL: <http://www.lib.udel.edu/ud/spec/>

Terms Governing Use and Reproduction

Use of materials from this collection beyond the exceptions provided for in the Fair Use and Educational Use clauses of the U.S. Copyright Law may violate federal law. Permission to publish or reproduce is required from the copyright holder. Please contact Special Collections Department, University of Delaware Library, <http://www.lib.udel.edu/cgi-bin/askspec.cgi>

Transcriptions by Center for Digital Collections staff.

Sangster Station Va
May 14th 1864

My Dearest Lou

I have another opportunity of writing you a few lines. Two days since we broke Camp at Licking Run moving back by Rail Road to this point which is some 20 miles nearer Washington.

The Regiment is divided into ten parts each company occupying a separate place on the road. The whole Regiment holding the Rail Road for at least ten miles. I am comfortably quartered in the County Almshouse of Fairfax County Va, and am now writing on a very fine walnut table, which is almost the only evidence that

Sangster Station Va

May 14th 1864

My Dearest Lou

I have another opportunity of writing you a few lines.

Two days since we broke Camp at Licking Run moving back by Rail Road to this parish which is some 20 miles nearer Washington.

the Regiment is divided into ten parts Each Company occupying the Rail Road for at least ten miles. I am comfortably quartered in the County Almshouse of Fairfax County Va and am now writing on a very fine walnut table, which is almost the only evidence that the old institution has seen better days, I hope it will not alarm you, my being in the County "Poor House," for such things you know will happen sometimes in the army. There are only about 6 inmates at this time. of course I am excepted.

I have just heard that we move again on to-morrow but it is only about 3 miles farther up the Road. It is the fate of Soldiers, when they get comfortably fixed in one place they are sure to be ordered away.

I have been long enough in the service now to quietly submit to any circumstances however hard. I have not yet received a letter from you. I am getting very impatient hope it will not be long now as our mails I think will come the old institution has seen better days, I hope it will not alarm you, my being in the County "Poor House," for such things you know will happen sometimes in the army. There are only about 6 inmates at this time. Of course, I am excepted.

I have just heard that we move again on to-morrow but it is only about 3 miles farther up the Road. It is the fate of Soldiers, when they get comfortably fixed in one place they are sure to be ordered away.

I have been long enough in the service now to quietly submit to any circumstances however hard. I have not yet received a letter from you. I am getting very impatient hope it will not be long now as our mails I think will come regularly hereafter. The news from the army still continues to be very gratifying, the fighting is terrible and the killed and wounded are counted by thousands. Yet we cannot expect to conquer them without losing heavily. I never felt so hopeful of seeing the end of the Rebellion as now. I think this summer and fall will close it. Will not that be a happy day that shall proclaim peace again to this distracted country. Then will I happily bid adieu to the blood stained fields of Virginia to return to them no more as a Soldier.

Then Lou we shall be happy. far happier, for having been so long separated by the stern decree of war!

These are pleasant reflections

regularly hereafter. The news from the army still continues to be very gratifying, the fighting is terrible and the killed and wounded are counted by thousands. yet we cannot expect to conquer them without losing heavily. I never felt so hopeful of seeing the end of the Rebellion as now. I think this summer and fall will close it. Will not that be a happy day that shall proclaim peace again to this distracted country. Then will I happily bid adieu to the Blood stained fields of Virginia to return to them no more as a Soldier.

Then Lou we shall be happy. far happier, for having been so long separated by the stern decree of war. These are pleasant reflections and most willingly does the mind dwell upon them. But I must close at present

Let me hope you are enjoying good health. With the joyous spring and the many kind friends that surround you your spirits I hope are also joyous. Write often.
Address as formerly. I remain

Ever truly Yours
Lou J. Seward Tom

and most willingly does this mind dwell upon them.
But I must close at present.

Let me hope you are enjoying good health. With the joyous spring and the many kind friends that surround you your spirits I know are also joyous.
Write often.

Address as formerly. I remain
Ever Truly Yours
Tom
Lou J. Seward