

Women's Class of 1918

Chronicle
of 1918

The Chronicle of 1918

Wherein is told the Story of the discovery of the Women's College of Delaware, the life of the Pioneers, the development of civilization by the Settlers and the Builders, and the coming of the Immigrants ❧ ❧ ❧

Written by the Scribes of the Land, & printed at the Shop called Kells, in Newark, Delaware, in the year Nineteen Hundred & Eighteen ❧ ❧ ❧

FOREWORD

The members of the Class of 1918 of the Women's College of Delaware delight in expressing through the medium of The Chronicle their appreciation for the interest which the people of the state have shown in furthering the College. The Class is also deeply grateful to the Faculty who have spent immeasurable time and effort in behalf of the students and have always been ready to co-operate with them (in every way possible) for their welfare. The Editorial Staff in turn acknowledge with many thanks the aid of members of the Faculty, students, and others who have helped to make this volume possible.

